AN ACT relating to juveniles; establishing a maximum period of time for which a juvenile court may order certain adults to be placed in county jail for a violation of juvenile probation or parole; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law provides that a juvenile court may order a child who is less than 2 18 years of age to be placed in a facility for the detention of children for not more
3 than 30 days for a violation of probation. Under existing law, if a person who is at 4 least 18 years of age but less than 21 years of age is subject to the jurisdiction of the 5 juvenile court because he or she has been placed on probation by the juvenile court
6 or released on parole from a juvenile detention facility, the juvenile court may order
7 the person to be placed in county jail for the violation of probation or parole. (NRS
8 62E.710) Section 3 of this bill limits to 30 days the period for which the juvenile 9 court may order such a person to be placed in county jail.
