AN ACT relating to civil actions; revising provisions governing comparative negligence; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides that in any action to recover damages for death or injury to persons or property where comparative negligence is asserted as a defense, the comparative negligence of the plaintiff or the plaintiff's decedent does not bar a recovery if that negligence was not greater than the negligence or gross negligence of the parties against whom recovery is sought. Where recovery is allowed against more than one defendant in such an action, except in certain cases, each defendant is severally liable to the plaintiff only for that portion of the judgment which represents the percentage of negligence attributable to that defendant. (NRS 41.141) This bill clarifies that where recovery is allowed against more than one defendant, the liability of the defendants is joint and several, rather than several, unless the trier of fact finds comparative negligence on the part of the plaintiff or the plaintiff's decedent.

1      Section 1. NRS 41.141 is hereby amended to read as follows:
2      41.141 1. In any action to recover damages for death or 3      injury to persons or for injury to property in which the trier of fact
4      finds comparative negligence ~~is asserted as a defense, on the part~~

1 gross negligence of the parties to the action against whom recovery
2 is sought.

3       2. In ~~these~~ cases H in which comparative negligence is asserted as a defense, the judge shall instruct the jury that:

4           (a) The plaintiff may not recover if the plaintiff's comparative 5 negligence or that of the plaintiff's decedent is greater than the 6 negligence of the defendant or the combined negligence of multiple 7 defendants.

8           (b) If the jury determines the plaintiff is entitled to recover, it
9 shall return:

10              (1) By general verdict the total amount of damages the 11 plaintiff would be entitled to recover without regard to the plaintiff's 12 comparative negligence; and

13              (2) A special verdict indicating the percentage of negligence
14 attributable to each party remaining in the action.

15       3. If a defendant ~~in such an action~~ settles with the plaintiff
16 before the entry of judgment, the comparative negligence of that 17 defendant and the amount of the settlement must not thereafter be 18 admitted into evidence nor considered by the jury. The judge shall 19 deduct the amount of the settlement from the net sum otherwise
20 recoverable by the plaintiff pursuant to the general and special
21 verdicts.

22       4. Where recovery is allowed against more than one defendant
23 in ~~such~~ an action H in which the trier of fact finds comparative negligence on the part of the plaintiff or the plaintiff's decedent, 24 except as otherwise provided in subsection 5, each defendant is
25 severally liable to the plaintiff only for that portion of the judgment
26 which represents the percentage of negligence attributable to that 27 defendant.

28       5. This section does not affect the joint and several liability, if 29 any, of the defendants in an action based upon:

30           (a) Strict liability;
31           (b) An intentional tort;
32           (c) The emission, disposal or spillage of a toxic or hazardous
33 substance;
34           (d) The concerted acts of the defendants; or 35           (e) An injury to any person or property resulting from a product
36 which is manufactured, distributed, sold or used in this State.

37       6. As used in this section:

38           (a) "Concerted acts of the defendants" does not include
39 negligent acts committed by providers of health care while working 40 together to provide treatment to a patient.
