AN ACT relating to public health; requiring a person who receives a health care record from certain persons or governmental entities to maintain the confidentiality of the record; authorizing a civil action for certain violations of such confidentiality; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law prohibits a person from using, releasing or publishing certain 2 information from an electronic health record or from the statewide health 3 information exchange for a purpose unrelated to the treatment, care, well-being or 4 billing of the person who is the subject of the information or for a marketing
5 purpose unless the use, release or publication is authorized by the Health Insurance
6 Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, Public Law 104-191. (NRS 439.590)
7 This bill: (1) prohibits a person who receives health care records from a person or 8 governmental entity who is subject to the Health Insurance Portability and 9 Accountability Act of 1996 from sharing or otherwise disclosing any information
10 contained in the records in any manner that is not authorized by the Act; and (2)
11 allows a person who is harmed by any such sharing or disclosure of his or her 12 health care records to bring an action to recover civil damages against the person or 13 governmental entity who violated this provision or who provided the health care
14 records to the person who violated this provision. This bill further specifically 15 authorizes the Attorney General to bring a civil action for damages on behalf of 16 residents for violations of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act 17 of 1996.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1      Section 1. Chapter 439 of NRS is hereby amended by adding 2 thereto a new section to read as follows:

3      *1. A person who receives health care records as part of a 4 transaction with a person or governmental entity who is subject to 5 the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, 6 Public Law 104-191, shall not share or otherwise disclose any 7 information contained in the health care records in any manner
8 not authorized by the Health Insurance Portability and 9 Accountability Act of 1996.*

10     2. A person who is harmed by a violation of subsection 1 may 11 bring an action to recover any damages sustained in a court of 12 competent jurisdiction in this State against:

13     (a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b), the person 14 or governmental entity that violated subsection 1; or

15     (b) If the person that violated subsection 1 is located outside of 16 the United States, the person or governmental entity that 17 transmitted those health care records to the person located outside 18 of the United States.

19     *3. If the Attorney General has reason to believe that one or 20 more residents of this State have been harmed by a violation of the 21 Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996,
22 Public Law 104-191, the Attorney General may bring a civil action
23 against the person responsible for the violation to obtain damages
24 on behalf of the resident or residents to the greatest extent 25 permitted by federal law.*

26     4. Nothing in this section shall be construed to:

27     *(a) Modify the application of the Health Insurance Portability
28 and Accountability Act of 1996 to a person or governmental entity
29 that is already subject to that law.*

30     (b) Waive any immunity from liability or limitation on liability 31 otherwise applicable to a governmental entity.

32     5. As used in this section, "health care records" has the 33 meaning ascribed to it in NRS 629.021.

34     Sec. 2. NRS 439.538 is hereby amended to read as follows:

35     439.538 1. If a covered entity transmits electronically
36 individually identifiable health information in compliance with the 37 provisions of:

38     (a) The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 39 1996, Public Law 104-191; and

40     (b) NRS 439.581 to 439.595, inclusive, and the regulations
41 adopted pursuant thereto,

* A B 3 1 6 R 1 *

1 ➔ which govern the electronic transmission of such information, the 2 covered entity is, for purposes of the electronic transmission,
3 exempt from any state law , except section 1 of this act, that 4 contains more stringent requirements or provisions concerning the 5 privacy or confidentiality of individually identifiable health
6 information.

7     2. A covered entity that makes individually identifiable health 8 information available electronically pursuant to subsection 1 shall 9 allow any person to opt out of having his or her individually
10 identifiable health information disclosed electronically to other 11 covered entities, except:

12         (a) As required by the administrative simplification provisions
13 of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, 14 Public Law 104-191.

15         (b) As otherwise required by a state law.

16         (c) That a person who is a recipient of Medicaid or insurance
17 pursuant to the Children's Health Insurance Program may not opt
18 out of having his or her individually identifiable health information 19 disclosed electronically.

20     3. As used in this section, "covered entity" has the meaning 21 ascribed to it in 45 C.F.R. § 160.103.

22     Sec. 3. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2013.
