certain crimes; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides that anyone who is not the husband or wife, brother or sister, parent or grandparent, child or grandchild of an offender and who harbors, conceals or aids the offender after the commission of a crime is an accessory to the crime. (NRS 195.030) ~~This~~ Section 1 of this bill removes every person other than the husband and wife or a domestic partner from that exception if the crime is a felony. Section 1 also revises the acts which constitute being an accessory to a crime after the commission of the crime by specifically stating that a person acts as such an accessory if he or she destroys or conceals, or aids in the destruction or concealment of, material evidence, or harbors or conceals the offender.

Existing law provides that an accessory to a felony is guilty of a category C felony. (NRS 195.040) Section 2 of this bill revises this penalty to provide that a person who harbors, conceals or aids the offender after the commission of a felony and who is the brother or sister, parent or grandparent, child or grandchild of the offender is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.
