AN ACT relating to employment; prohibiting employers from conditioning employment on access to an employee’s social media account; prohibiting a person from requesting or considering a consumer report for purposes relating to employment except under certain circumstances; revising provisions relating to the release of a consumer report that is subject to a security freeze; providing civil remedies; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Existing law establishes various unlawful employment practices. (Chapter 613 of NRS)
2 This bill prohibits an employer from conditioning the employment of an employee or 3 prospective employee on his or her disclosure of the user name, password or any other 4 information that provides access to the employee’s or prospective employee’s personal social 5 media account. This bill also prohibits an employer from taking certain employment actions 6 based on the refusal of an employee or prospective employee to disclose such information.
7 This bill further provides, however, that it is not unlawful for an employer to require an 8 employee to disclose his or her user name, password or any other information to an account or 9 a service, other than a personal social media account, for the purpose of accessing the 10 employer’s own internal computer or information system.
11 Under existing law, a person who complies with the requirements of the Fair Credit
12 Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681 et seq., and chapter 598C of NRS is allowed to obtain a 13 consumer report for purposes relating to the employment of the consumer. Sections 3 and 4 14 of this bill prohibit a person from requesting or considering a consumer report for purposes of 15 evaluating a consumer for employment, promotion, reassignment or retention as an employee 16 unless: (1) the use of the report is required or authorized by state or federal law; (2) the person

17 reasonably believes that the consumer has engaged in specific activity which may constitute a 18 violation of state or federal law and is likely to be reflected in the report; or (3) the 19 information in the report is reasonably related to the position for which the consumer is being 20 evaluated.

21 Existing law provides that if a consumer places a security freeze on his or her file 22 maintained by a credit reporting agency, the agency is not allowed to release the consumer 23 report without the consumer's consent except for certain purposes, which include certain 24 purposes relating to employment of the consumer. (NRS 598C.350, 598C.380) Section 5 of 25 this bill revises the scope of that exception to conform with section 4.
