AN ACT relating to correctional institutions; prohibiting the possession of portable telecommunications devices by certain prisoners; authorizing persons convicted of possessing portable telecommunications devices to request a modification of sentence under certain circumstances; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law prohibits the possession of portable telecommunications devices by 2 prisoners in state institutions and facilities. (NRS 212.165) This bill extends that prohibition to 3 include any prisoner in a jail, branch county jail or other local detention facility and provides 4 that a prisoner who violates the prohibition is guilty of: (1) a category D felony if he or she 5 was confined as a result of a felony; (2) a gross misdemeanor if he or she was confined as a 6 result of a gross misdemeanor; or (3) a misdemeanor if he or she was confined as a result
7 of a misdemeanor. This bill also authorizes a person who was convicted of possessing a 8 portable telecommunications device in a jail, branch county jail or other local detention 9 facility to request a modification of his or her sentence if the underlying charge for 10 which the person was in lawful custody or confinement has been reduced, declined for 11 prosecution or dismissed.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. NRS 212.165 is hereby amended to read as follows:

2 212.165 1. A person shall not, without lawful authorization, knowingly 3 furnish, attempt to furnish, or aid or assist in furnishing or attempting to furnish to a 4 prisoner confined in an institution or a facility of the Department of Corrections, or 5 any other place where prisoners are authorized to be or are assigned by the Director
6 of the Department, a portable telecommunications device. A person who violates 7 this subsection is guilty of a category E felony and shall be punished as provided in 8 NRS 193.130.

9 2. A person shall not, without lawful authorization, carry into an institution or 10 a facility of the Department, or any other place where prisoners are authorized to be 11 or are assigned by the Director of the Department, a portable telecommunications
12 device. A person who violates this subsection is guilty of a misdemeanor.

13 3. A prisoner confined in an institution or a facility of the Department, or any 14 other place where prisoners are authorized to be or are assigned by the Director of 15 the Department, shall not, without lawful authorization, possess or have in his or 16 her custody or control a portable telecommunications device. A prisoner who 17 violates this subsection is guilty of a category D felony and shall be punished as 18 provided in NRS 193.130.

19 4. A prisoner confined in a jail or any other place where such prisoners are 20 authorized to be or are assigned by the sheriff, chief of police or other officer 21 responsible for the operation of the jail, shall not, without lawful authorization, 22 possess or have in his or her custody or control a portable telecommunications 23 device. A prisoner who violates this subsection and who is in lawful custody or 24 confinement for a charge, conviction or sentence for:

25 (a) A felony is guilty of a category D felony and shall be punished as 26 provided in NRS 193.130.

27 (b) A gross misdemeanor is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

28 (c) A misdemeanor is guilty of a misdemeanor.

29 5. A sentence imposed upon a prisoner pursuant to subsection 3 ~~H~~ or 4:

30 (a) Is not subject to suspension or the granting of probation; and 31 (b) Must run consecutively after the prisoner has served any sentences imposed 32 upon the prisoner for the offense or offenses for which the prisoner was in lawful
33 custody or confinement when the prisoner violated the provisions of subsection 3 ~~H~~ 34 ~~—5~~ or 4.

35 6. A person who was convicted and sentenced pursuant to subsection 4 may 36 file a petition, if the underlying charge for which the person was in lawful 37 custody or confinement has been reduced to a charge for which the penalty is less 38 than the penalty which was imposed upon the person pursuant to subsection 4, 39 with the court of original jurisdiction requesting that the court, for good cause 40 shown:

41 (a) Order that his or her sentence imposed pursuant to subsection 4 be 42 modified to a sentence equivalent to the penalty imposed for the underlying 43 charge for which the person was convicted; and

44 (b) Resentence him or her in accordance with the penalties prescribed for the 45 underlying charge for which the person was convicted.

46 7. A person who was convicted and sentenced pursuant to subsection 4 may 47 file a petition, if the underlying charge for which the person was in lawful 48 custody or confinement has been declined for prosecution or dismissed, with the 49 court of original jurisdiction requesting that the court, for good cause shown:

1 (a) Order that his or her original sentence pursuant to subsection 4 be 2 reduced to a misdemeanor; and

3 (b) Resentence him or her in accordance with the penalties prescribed for a 4 misdemeanor.

5 8. No person has a right to the modification of a sentence pursuant to 6 subsection 6 or 7, and the granting or denial of a petition pursuant to subsection
7 6 or 7 does not establish a basis for any cause of action against this State, any 8 political subdivision of this State or any agency, board, commission, department, 9 officer, employee or agent of this State or a political subdivision of this State.
