Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law sets forth various requirements for operators, retailers and dealers of 2 dogs and cats concerning the care of those dogs and cats, including, without limitation,
3 requirements for buildings, enclosures, outdoor facilities, floor space, food and water,
4 sanitation and examinations by veterinarians. (NRS 574.360-574.510) This bill prohibits a 5 person ~~from~~, other than a nonprofit organization that was formed for animal welfare purposes,
6 from selling, attempting to sell, offering for adoption or transferring ownership of a live
7 animal at a swap meet. A person who violates that prohibition is guilty of a misdemeanor.
8 This bill also requires a nonprofit organization which sells a live animal or offers a live animal 9 for adoption to provide proof that the animal has been sterilized and that the animal's 10 immunizations are current, unless: (1) the swap meet is conducted in a county or 11 incorporated city in this State which has adopted an ordinance authorizing the sale of a 12 live animal at a swap meet; (2) the person sells, attempts to sell, offers for adoption or 13 transfers ownership of the animal in accordance with the ordinance; and (3) the 14 ordinance adopted by the county or incorporated city is substantially similar to those 15 provisions of existing law, but is applicable to all animals for sale and all persons who 16 sell, attempt to sell, or offer for adoption or transfer ownership of an animal at a swap
17 meet. This bill does not apply to the transfer or sale of livestock or to the adoption of a
