AN ACT relating to public health; requiring a person who receives a health care record from certain persons or governmental entities to maintain the confidentiality of the record; authorizing a civil action for certain violations of such confidentiality; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law prohibits a person from using, releasing or publishing certain information
2 from an electronic health record or from the statewide health information exchange for a
3 purpose unrelated to the treatment, care, well-being or billing of the person who is the subject
4 of the information or for a marketing purpose unless the use, release or publication is
5 authorized by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, Public Law
6 104-191. (NRS 439.590) This bill: (1) prohibits a person who receives health care records
7 from a person or governmental entity who is subject to the Health Insurance Portability and 8 Accountability Act of 1996 from sharing or otherwise disclosing any information contained in 9 the records in any manner that is not authorized by the Act; and (2) allows a ~~resident of this~~
10 ~~State~~ person who is harmed by any such sharing or disclosure of his or her health care
11 records to bring an action to recover civil damages against the person or governmental entity 12 who violated this provision or who provided the health care records to the person who 13 violated this provision. This bill further specifically authorizes the Attorney General to 14 bring a civil action for damages on behalf of residents for violations of the Health
15 Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Chapter 439 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new
2 section to read as follows:

3 1. A person who receives health care records as part of a transaction with a
4 person or governmental entity who is subject to the Health Insurance Portability

1 and Accountability Act of 1996, Public Law 104-191, shall not share or otherwise
2 disclose any information contained in the health care records in any manner not
3 authorized by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996.

4 2. A person who is harmed by a violation of subsection 1 may bring an 5 action to recover any damages sustained in a court of competent jurisdiction in 6 this State against ~~the~~.

7 (a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b), the person or 8 governmental entity ~~who provided the health care records to the person who~~ 9 that violated subsection 1~~;~~; or

10 (b) If the person that violated subsection 1 is located outside of the United 11 States, the person or governmental entity that transmitted those health care
12 records to the person located outside of the United States.

13 3. If the Attorney General has reason to believe that one or more residents
14 of this State have been harmed by a violation of the Health Insurance Portability
15 and Accountability Act of 1996, Public Law 104-191, the Attorney General may 16 bring a civil action against the person responsible for the violation to obtain 17 damages on behalf of the resident or residents to the greatest extent permitted by 18 federal law.

19 4. Nothing in this section shall be construed to:

20 (a) Modify the application of the Health Insurance Portability and 21 Accountability Act of 1996 to a person or governmental entity that is already 22 subject to that law.

23 (b) Waive any immunity from liability or limitation on liability otherwise 24 applicable to a governmental entity.

25 ~~4.5.~~ As used in this section, "health care records" has the meaning
26 ascribed to it in NRS 629.021.

27 Sec. 2. NRS 439.538 is hereby amended to read as follows:

28 439.538 1. If a covered entity transmits electronically individually
29 identifiable health information in compliance with the provisions of:

30 (a) The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, Public 31 Law 104-191; and

32 (b) NRS 439.581 to 439.595, inclusive, and the regulations adopted pursuant 33 thereto,

34 → which govern the electronic transmission of such information, the covered entity 35 is, for purposes of the electronic transmission, exempt from any state law, except 36 section 1 of this act, that contains more stringent requirements or provisions
37 concerning the privacy or confidentiality of individually identifiable health 38 information.

39 2. A covered entity that makes individually identifiable health information 40 available electronically pursuant to subsection 1 shall allow any person to opt out of 41 having his or her individually identifiable health information disclosed 42 electronically to other covered entities, except:

43 (a) As required by the administrative simplification provisions of the Health
44 Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, Public Law 104-191.

45 (b) As otherwise required by a state law.

46 (c) That a person who is a recipient of Medicaid or insurance pursuant to the 47 Children's Health Insurance Program may not opt out of having his or her 48 individually identifiable health information disclosed electronically.

49 3. As used in this section, "covered entity" has the meaning ascribed to it in 50 45 C.F.R. § 160.103.

51 ~~See. 2.~~ Sec. 3. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2013.
