EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets [omitted material] is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to criminal procedure; establishing certain time limitations regarding the disclosure of the factual content of reports of presentence investigations; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires the Division of Parole and Probation of the Department of Public Safety to disclose to the prosecuting attorney, the counsel for the defendant and the defendant the factual content of the report of any: (1) presentence investigation made by the Division and the recommendations of the Division; and (2) general investigation made by the Division. The Division is also required to give each party an opportunity to object to any factual errors in any such report and to comment on any recommendations. (NRS 176.156)

Section 1 of this bill requires the Division to disclose the factual content of the report of any presentence investigation made by the Division and the recommendations of the Division to the prosecuting attorney, the counsel for the defendant, the defendant and the court not later than 7 working days before the defendant will be sentenced, unless the defendant waives this minimum period. Sections 3.3, 3.7 and 5 of this bill provide that beginning on March 1, 2014, the minimum period designated pursuant to section 1 becomes 14 working days before sentencing, and beginning on October 1, 2014, the minimum period becomes 21 working days before sentencing.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 176 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:
