EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~is omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to crimes; revising provisions relating to the time for filing a count alleging that a person is a habitual criminal, habitual felon or habitually fraudulent felon; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law : (1) authorizes a prosecuting attorney to prosecute a person as a habitual criminal, a habitual felon or a habitually fraudulent felon if certain conditions exist; and (2) prescribes the punishment for a habitual criminal, a habitual felon or a habitually fraudulent felon. (NRS 207.010, 207.012, 207.014) Under existing law, a prosecuting attorney may ~~file~~ : (1) include in the information charging the primary offense a count alleging that a person is a habitual criminal, a habitual felon or a habitually fraudulent felon ; or (2) file such a count after the person's conviction for the primary offense ~~if but, in such a case, the sentence must not be imposed or a certain hearing held until 15 days after the filing,~~ (NRS 207.016) This bill requires a count alleging that a person is a habitual criminal, a habitual felon or a habitually fraudulent felon to be filed ~~within 30~~ not less than 2 days ~~after~~ before the ~~defendant's arraignment~~ trial on the primary offense, unless the prosecution and the defendant stipulate otherwise or for good cause shown the court extends such time. This bill also authorizes the prosecution to supplement or amend such a count at any time before sentence is imposed, but, if such a supplement or amendment is filed, the sentence must not be imposed or a certain hearing must not occur until 15 days after the filing.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. NRS 207.016 is hereby amended to read as follows:
2 207.016 1. A conviction pursuant to NRS 207.010, 207.012 or 207.014
3 operates only to increase, not to reduce, the sentence otherwise provided by law for 4 the principal crime.

1 2. If a count pursuant to NRS 207.010, 207.012 or 207.014 is included in an
2 information charging the primary offense, each previous conviction must be alleged
3 in the accusatory pleading, but no such conviction may be alluded to on trial of the 4 primary offense, nor may any allegation of the conviction be read in the presence of
5 a jury trying the offense or a grand jury considering an indictment for the offense.
6 A count pursuant to NRS 207.010, 207.012 or 207.014 may be ~~is separately~~ filed
7 ~~after conviction off separately from the indictment or information charging the~~
8 ~~primary offense, but if it is so filed, the count pursuant to NRS 207.010, 207.012~~
9 ~~or 207.014 must be filed within 30 days after the defendant's arraignment not~~
10 ~~less than 2 days before the start of the trial on the primary offense unless the~~
11 ~~prosecution and the defendant stipulate otherwise or the court for good cause~~
12 ~~shown makes an order extending the time. If For good cause shown, the~~
13 ~~prosecution may supplement or amend a count pursuant to NRS 207.010,~~
14 ~~207.012 or 207.014 is filed separately from the indictment or information~~
15 ~~charging the primary offense; at any time before the sentence is imposed, but if~~
16 ~~such a supplement or amendment is filed, the~~ sentence must not be imposed, or 17 the hearing required by subsection 3 held, until 15 days after the separate filing.

18 3. If a defendant charged pursuant to NRS 207.010, 207.012 or 207.014
19 pleads guilty or guilty but mentally ill to, or is found guilty or guilty but mentally ill
20 of, the primary offense but denies any previous conviction charged, the court shall
21 determine the issue of the previous conviction after hearing all relevant evidence
22 presented on the issue by the prosecution and the defendant. At such a hearing, the 23 defendant may not challenge the validity of a previous conviction. The court shall 24 impose sentence:

25 (a) Pursuant to NRS 207.010 upon finding that the defendant has suffered
26 previous convictions sufficient to support an adjudication of habitual criminality;

27 (b) Pursuant to NRS 207.012 upon finding that the defendant has suffered 28 previous convictions sufficient to support an adjudication of habitual felon; or

29 (c) Pursuant to NRS 207.014 upon finding that the defendant has suffered
30 previous convictions sufficient to support an adjudication of habitually fraudulent
31 felon.

32 4. Nothing in the provisions of this section, NRS 207.010, 207.012 or 33 207.014 limits the prosecution in introducing evidence of prior convictions for 34 purposes of impeachment.

35 5. For the purposes of NRS 207.010, 207.012 and 207.014, a certified copy of 36 a felony conviction is prima facie evidence of conviction of a prior felony.

37 6. Nothing in the provisions of this section, NRS 207.010, 207.012 or
38 207.014 prohibits a court from imposing an adjudication of habitual criminality,
39 adjudication of habitual felon or adjudication of habitually fraudulent felon based 40 upon a stipulation of the parties.
