AN ACT relating to employment practices; prohibiting employers from conditioning employment on a consumer credit report or other credit information; providing certain exceptions; providing remedies and administrative penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law establishes various unlawful employment practices. (Chapter 613 of NRS)
2 Section 7 of this bill prohibits an employer from conditioning the employment of an employee
3 or prospective employee on his or her consumer credit report or other credit information.
4 Section 7 also prohibits an employer from taking certain employment actions based on the 5 refusal of an employee or prospective employee to submit a credit report or other credit
6 information or on the results of such a report or information. Section 7 further prohibits an
7 employer from taking certain employment actions where an employee or prospective
8 employee files a complaint, testifies in any legal proceeding or exercises his or her rights with 9 respect to any violation committed by the employer. Section 7.5 of this bill provides certain 10 exceptions to the preceding prohibitions, including, without limitation, an exception for 11 circumstances in which the information contained in the consumer credit report or other
12 credit information is reasonably related to the position of employment. Section 8 of this 13 bill establishes the civil remedies available to a person affected by a violation committed by 14 an employer, including employment of a prospective employee, reinstatement or promotion of 15 an employee, payment of lost wages and benefits and the award of reasonable costs and 16 attorney's fees. Section 9 of this bill authorizes the Labor Commissioner to impose an 17 administrative penalty against an employer for each violation and to bring a civil action
18 against the employer.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1       Section 1. Chapter 613 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the
2 provisions set forth as sections 2 to 9, inclusive, of this act.

3       Sec. 2. *As used in sections 2 to 9, inclusive, of this act, unless the context
4 otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in sections 3 to 6, inclusive, of 5 this act have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.*

6       Sec. 3. "Consumer credit report" means any written, oral or other 7 communication of information by a consumer reporting agency bearing on the 8 credit worthiness, credit standing or credit capacity of a person.

9       Sec. 4. "Consumer reporting agency" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 686A.640.

10       Sec. 5. *"Credit information" means any information that is related to credit
11 and derived from a consumer credit report or found on a consumer credit report.
12 The term does not include information that is not related to credit, regardless of 13 whether it is contained in a consumer credit report.*

14       Sec. 6. "Employer" has the meaning ascribed to it in subsection 1 of NRS 613.440.

15       Sec. 7. ~~¶¶ Except as otherwise provided in section 7.5 of this act, it is~~
16 ~~unlawful for any employer in this State to:~~

17           1. Directly or indirectly, require, request, suggest or cause any employee or 18 prospective employee to submit a consumer credit report or other credit
19 information as a condition of employment;

20           2. Use, accept, refer to or inquire concerning a consumer credit report or 21 other credit information;

22           3. Discharge, discipline, discriminate against in any manner or deny
23 employment or promotion to, or threaten to take any such action against any 24 employee or prospective employee;

25           (a) Who refuses, declines or fails to submit a consumer credit report or other 26 credit information; or

27           (b) On the basis of the results of a consumer credit report or other credit 28 information; or

29           4. Discharge, discipline, discriminate against in any manner or deny
30 employment or promotion to, or threaten to take any such action against any 31 employee or prospective employee who has:

32           (a) Filed any complaint or instituted or caused to be instituted any legal 33 proceeding pursuant to sections 2 to 9, inclusive, of this act;

34           (b) Testified or may testify in any legal proceeding instituted pursuant to 35 sections 2 to 9, inclusive, of this act; or

36           (c) Exercised his or her rights, or has exercised on behalf of another person
37 the rights afforded to him or her pursuant to sections 2 to 9, inclusive, of this act.

38       Sec. 7.5. *An employer may request or consider a consumer credit report or 39 other credit information for the purpose of evaluating an employee or prospective
40 employee for employment, promotion, reassignment or retention as an employee 41 if:*

42           1. *The employer is required or authorized, pursuant to state or federal law,
43 to use a consumer credit report or other credit information for that purpose;*

44           2. *The employer reasonably believes that the employee or prospective
45 employee has engaged in specific activity which may constitute a violation of state 46 or federal law; or*

1       3. The information contained in the consumer credit report or other credit
2       information is reasonably related to the position for which the employee or 3       prospective employee is being evaluated for employment, promotion,
4       reassignment or retention as an employee. The information in the consumer
5       credit report or other credit information shall be deemed reasonably related to 6       such an evaluation if the duties of the position involve:

- 7       (a) The care, custody and handling of, or responsibility for, money, financial 8       accounts, corporate credit or debit cards, or other assets;
9       (b) Access to trade secrets or other proprietary or confidential information;
10      (c) Managerial or supervisory responsibility;
11      (d) The direct exercise of law enforcement authority as an employee of a
12      state or local law enforcement agency;
13      (e) The care, custody and handling of, or responsibility for, the personal 14      information of another person;
15      (f) Access to the personal financial information of another person;
16      (g) Employment with a financial institution that is chartered under state or 17      federal law, including a subsidiary or affiliate of such a financial institution; or 18      (h) Employment with a licensed gaming establishment, as defined in NRS
19      463.0169.

20     Sec. 8. 1. An employer who violates the provisions of sections 2 to 9, 21     inclusive, of this act is liable to the employee or prospective employee affected by 22     the violation. The employer is liable for any legal or equitable relief as may be 23     appropriate, including employment of a prospective employee, reinstatement or 24     promotion of an employee and the payment of lost wages and benefits.

25     2. An action to recover the liability pursuant to subsection 1 may be 26     maintained against the employer by an employee or prospective employee:

- 27       (a) For or on behalf of the employee or prospective employee; and 28       (b) On behalf of other employees or prospective employees similarly situated.
29       ↳ An action must not be commenced pursuant to this section more than 3 years
30       after the date of the alleged violation.

31     3. In any action brought pursuant to this section, the court, in its discretion,
32     may allow the prevailing party reasonable costs, including attorney's fees.

33     Sec. 9. 1. If any person violates sections 2 to 9, inclusive, of this act, the 34     Labor Commissioner may impose against the person an administrative penalty of 35     not more than $9,000 for each such violation.

36     2. In determining the amount of any administrative penalty to be imposed
37     against the person, the Labor Commissioner shall consider the previous record of 38     the person in terms of compliance with sections 2 to 9, inclusive, of this act and 39     the severity of the violation. Any administrative penalty imposed against the 40     person is in addition to any other remedy or penalty provided pursuant to this act.

41     3. The Labor Commissioner may bring a civil action pursuant to this 42     section to restrain violations of sections 2 to 9, inclusive, of this act. A court of 43     competent jurisdiction may issue, without bond, a temporary or permanent 44     restraining order or injunction to require compliance with sections 2 to 9, 45     inclusive, of this act, including any legal or equitable relief incident thereto as 46     may be appropriate, such as employment of a prospective employee, reinstatement
47     or promotion of an employee, and the payment of lost wages and benefits.
