EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to criminal procedure; ~~enacting the Uniform Collateral Consequences of Conviction Act;~~ requiring the Attorney General to prepare and publish certain information concerning the collateral consequences of a conviction; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

~~This bill enacts the Uniform Collateral Consequences of Conviction Act. Sections 4, 5 and 8 of this bill define a collateral consequence of conviction as: (1) a legal disability that occurs by operation of law because of a conviction but is not part of the sentence for the crime; or (2) a disadvantage or disability that an administrative agency, civil court or other state actor other than a sentencing court is authorized, but not required, to impose based on a conviction.~~

Section ~~13~~ 1 of this bill requires the Attorney General to prepare and publish a collection of the provisions of existing law which impose or authorize a collateral consequence of conviction and any provisions of existing law allowing relief from those collateral consequences. Section 1 defines a collateral consequence of conviction as: (1) a legal disability that occurs by operation of law because of a conviction but is not part of the sentence for the crime; or (2) a disadvantage or disability that an administrative agency, civil court or other state actor other than a sentencing court is authorized, but not required, to impose based on a conviction. Under section ~~14~~ 2 of this bill, the first such collection must be prepared on or before January 1, 2014, and under section ~~13~~ 1, the Attorney General must update the collection not later than 45 days after each regular legislative session. Section ~~13~~ 1 also requires the collection to be made available on the Internet not later than 14 days after it is created or updated.

~~Sections 14 and 15 of this bill require notice of collateral consequences of conviction to be provided to a defendant during a criminal case. Section 14 requires the court to provide notice of collateral consequences at the time a person receives formal notice of criminal charges against him or her. Sections 15 and 22 of this bill require certain information concerning collateral consequences to be provided at sentencing and before release from incarceration.~~

~~Section 16 of this bill allows a collateral consequence that is a legal disability occurring by operation of law as a result of a conviction to be imposed only by statute, ordinance or formally adopted regulation. Section 17 of this bill requires governmental decision makers to~~

~~consider certain information when deciding whether to impose a legal disadvantage or disability that the decision maker is authorized, but not required, to impose based on a conviction.~~

~~Section 18 of this bill defines the judgments that constitute convictions for the purposes of imposing collateral consequences. Section 18 further prescribes the manner in which out-of-state convictions and juvenile adjudications will be used to impose collateral consequences in this State. Section 18 also excludes convictions which have been overturned or pardoned or which did not result in a final conviction because of diversion or deferred adjudication. Under section 18, if another state has granted certain types of relief from a conviction based on rehabilitation or the passage of time, that relief has the same effect in this State as in the other state, except that the relief does not remove the requirements for sex offender registration or the prohibition against certain convicted persons being employed as a peace officer.~~

~~Section 19 of this bill allows the sentencing court to provide, at the time of sentencing, relief from collateral consequences of conviction related to employment, education, housing, public benefits or occupational licensing. Under section 19, such relief lifts the automatic bar of a collateral consequence and leaves an agency free to consider on a case by case basis whether it is appropriate to deny the opportunity to an individual.~~

~~Section 12 of this bill provides that neither the provisions of this bill nor noncompliance with them are a basis for invalidating a plea or conviction, making a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel or suing anyone for money damages.~~
