

Senate Bill No. 11—Committee on Natural Resources

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to wildlife; making it unlawful to possess in Nevada any wildlife that was acquired, hunted, taken or transported in violation of a law or regulation of another state or country; providing criminal and civil penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

This bill makes it unlawful for a person to possess in Nevada any wildlife, as that term is defined by the country or state of origin of the wildlife, that was acquired, hunted, taken or transported in violation of a law or regulation of that country or state. A person who violates this new prohibition: (1) is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $50 or more than $500, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 6 months, or by both; (2) may be required to pay a civil penalty, the amount of which is based upon the type of wildlife involved; and (3) may be required to surrender all licenses issued to the person under title 45 of NRS. (NRS 501.385, 501.3855, 501.387)

EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets [omitted material] is material to be omitted.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 501 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. It is unlawful for any person to possess in Nevada any wildlife that was acquired, hunted, taken or transported from another state or country in violation of any law or regulation of that state or country.

2. As used in this section, “wildlife” has the meaning ascribed to the term in the applicable law or regulation of the state or country of its origin.

Sec. 2. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2013.
