Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1       Section 4 of Article 1 of the Nevada Constitution and the First Amendment to 2       the United States Constitution guarantee citizens of this State the free exercise and 3       enjoyment of religious profession and worship. This bill enacts the Nevada

6       religion of a person. This prohibition applies regardless of whether the burden on

7 religion is the result of a rule that is generally applicable and not specifically 8 directed at religious activity.

9 This bill authorizes a person whose exercise of religion has been substantially
10 burdened to bring or defend an action in court and to obtain appropriate relief. A 11 governmental entity is only authorized to substantially burden religious exercise if 12 the governmental entity demonstrates that the burden furthers a compelling 13 governmental interest and is the least restrictive means by which the governmental 14 entity can further that interest. In addition, this bill does not restrict the Nevada 15 Legislature from enacting laws which affect religion if the law explicitly makes the 16 provisions of this bill inapplicable to the new law. This bill further requires a court 17 to award costs and attorney's fees to a person who prevails in an action brought 18 pursuant to these provisions against a governmental entity.

2 Section 4 of Article 1 of the Nevada Constitution and the First 3 Amendment to the United States Constitution; and

4 WHEREAS, The State of Nevada has independent authority to 5 protect the free exercise of religion based on principles that are 6 separate from, complementary to and more expansive than the 7 Nevada and United States Constitutions; and

8 WHEREAS, Laws that are facially neutral toward religion may 9 burden religious exercise as significantly as laws which directly 10 interfere with the exercise of religion; and

11 WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court has upheld facially
12 neutral laws which burden the exercise of religion with little 13 justification by the governmental entity that enacted the law; and

15 governmental interests, governmental entities must be required to 16 demonstrate compelling justification when it substantially burdens
