

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to days of observance; establishing “Nevada Tribes Legislative Day” as a day of observance; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law sets forth certain days of observance in this State to commemorate certain persons or occasions or to publicize information regarding certain important topics. (Chapter 236 of NRS) This bill establishes the second Tuesday of each regular session of the Legislature as “Nevada Tribes Legislative Day,” which is a day of observance and not a legal holiday.

EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 236 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

The second Tuesday of February during each regular session of the Legislature is established as “Nevada Tribes Legislative Day” in the State of Nevada in recognition of the contributions American Indians have made to the prosperity and cultural diversity of Nevada and the United States.

Sec. 2. Chapter 233A of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

In observance of “Nevada Tribes Legislative Day” established pursuant to section 1 of this act, the Nevada Indian Commission shall:

1. Invite the Legislature, the Governor and other elected officials to recognize and pay tribute to the history and culture of American Indians and their contributions to the prosperity and cultural diversity of Nevada and the United States.

2. Schedule activities and discussions between state and tribal leaders on issues of common interest.

Sec. 3. This act becomes effective upon passage and approval.
