2       604A.407 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, for 3 the purposes of determining whether a loan is a high-interest loan,
4 when determining whether a lender is charging an annual percentage 5 rate of more than 40 percent, calculations must be made in 6 accordance with the Truth in Lending Act and Regulation Z, except 7 that every charge or fee, regardless of the name given to the charge
8 or fee, payable directly or indirectly by the customer and imposed 9 directly or indirectly by the lender must be included in calculating 10 the annual percentage rate, including, without limitation:

- 11       (a) Interest;
12       (b) Application fees, regardless of whether such fees are charged 13 to all applicants or credit is actually extended;
14       (c) Fees charged for participation in a credit plan, whether 15 assessed on an annual, periodic or nonperiodic basis; and 16       (d) Prepaid finance charges.

31 whether a loan is a high-interest loan and must not be used in 32 compliance with the disclosure requirements of paragraph (g) of 33 subsection 2 of NRS 604A.410 or any other provisions of this 34 chapter requiring disclosure of an annual percentage rate in the 35 making of a loan.

36       Sec. 3. NRS 604A.485 is hereby amended to read as follows:

37       604A.485 1. If a customer defaults on a loan or on any 38 extension or repayment plan relating to the loan, whichever is later,

41       (a) The unpaid principal amount of the loan.

42       (b) The unpaid interest, if any, accrued before the default at the 43 annual percentage rate set forth in the disclosure statement required

1 customer, relating to the loan, the licensee may charge and collect
2 interest pursuant to this paragraph for a period not to exceed 60 days
3 after the expiration of the initial loan period, unless otherwise
4 allowed by NRS 604A.480.

5 (c) The interest accrued after the expiration of the initial loan 6 period or after any extension or repayment plan that is allowed
7 pursuant to this chapter, whichever is later, at an annual percentage 8 rate not to exceed the prime rate at the largest bank in Nevada, as 9 ascertained by the Commissioner, on January 1 or July 1, as the case
10 may be, immediately preceding the expiration of the initial loan
11 period, plus 10 percent. The licensee may charge and collect interest 12 pursuant to this paragraph for a period not to exceed 90 days. After 13 that period, the licensee shall not charge or collect any interest on 14 the loan.

15 (d) Any fees allowed pursuant to NRS 604A.490 for a check
16 that is not paid upon presentment or an electronic transfer of money
17 that fails because the account of the customer contains insufficient 18 funds or has been closed.

19 ➤ The sum of all amounts collected pursuant to paragraphs (b), (c)
20 and (d) must not exceed the principal amount of the loan.

21 2. Except for the interest and fees permitted pursuant to 22 subsection 1 and any other charges expressly permitted pursuant to 23 NRS 604A.430, 604A.445 and 604A.475, and section 1 of this act,
24 the licensee shall not charge any other amount to a customer,
25 including, without limitation, any amount or charge payable directly 26 or indirectly by the customer and imposed directly or indirectly by 27 the licensee as an incident to or as a condition of the extension of 28 the period for the payment of the loan or the extension of credit.
29 Such prohibited amounts include, without limitation:

30 (a) Any interest, other than the interest charged pursuant to 31 subsection 1, regardless of the name given to the interest; or

32 (b) Any origination fees, set-up fees, collection fees, transaction
33 fees, negotiation fees, handling fees, processing fees, late fees, 34 default fees or any other fees, regardless of the name given to the 35 fee.
