SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION—Urging the President of the United States to grant a posthumous pardon to John Arthur “Jack” Johnson for the 1913 racially motivated conviction of Johnson, which diminished his athletic, cultural and historical significance and destroyed his reputation.

1 WHEREAS, John Arthur “Jack” Johnson was a flamboyant,
2 defiant and controversial figure in the history of the United States
3 who challenged racial biases; and

4 WHEREAS, Jack Johnson was born in Galveston, Texas, in 1878
5 to parents who were former slaves; and

6 WHEREAS, Jack Johnson became a professional boxer and 7 traveled throughout the United States, fighting white and African-8 American heavyweights; and

9 WHEREAS, After being denied, on purely racial grounds, the 10 opportunity in this country to fight two white champions, in 1908,
11 Jack Johnson was granted an opportunity to fight the reigning white 12 title-holder, Tommy Burns, in Sydney, Australia; and

1 WHEREAS, The victory by Jack Johnson over Tommy Burns
2 prompted a search for a white boxer who could beat Jack Johnson, a
3 recruitment effort that was dubbed the search for the “Great White 4 Hope”; and

5 WHEREAS, In 1910, as part of that effort, former champion
6 named Jim Jeffries left retirement to fight Jack Johnson in Reno, 7 Nevada; and

8 WHEREAS, Jim Jeffries lost to Jack Johnson in front of a crowd 9 of 20,000 people, in what has been referred to by many as the 10 “Battle of the Century”; and

11 WHEREAS, The defeat of Jim Jeffries by Jack Johnson led to 12 rioting, aggression against African Americans and the racially 13 motivated murder of African Americans nationwide; and

14 WHEREAS, The relationships of Jack Johnson with white women 15 compounded the resentment felt toward him by many; and

16 WHEREAS, Between 1901 and 1910, 754 African Americans
17 were lynched, some for simply being “too familiar” with white 18 women; and

19 WHEREAS, In 1910, Congress passed the Act of June 25, 1910,
20 commonly known as the “White Slave Traffic Act” or the “Mann
21 Act,” (18 U.S.C. §§ 2421 et seq.), which outlawed the transportation 22 of women in interstate or foreign commerce “for the purpose of 23 prostitution or debauchery, or for any other immoral purpose”; and

24 WHEREAS, In October 1912, Jack Johnson became involved
25 with a white woman, Lucille Cameron, whose mother disapproved
26 of their relationship and sought action from the Department of 27 Justice, claiming that Jack Johnson had abducted her daughter; and

28 WHEREAS, Jack Johnson was arrested by Federal marshals on 29 October 18, 1912, for transporting Lucille Cameron across state 30 lines for an “immoral purpose” in violation of the Mann Act; and

31 WHEREAS, The Mann Act charges against Jack Johnson were 32 dropped when Lucille Cameron refused to cooperate with Federal 33 authorities and then married Jack Johnson; and

35 woman named Belle Schreiber, who testified that Jack Johnson had 36 transported her across state lines for the purpose of “prostitution and 37 debauchery”; and

38 WHEREAS, In 1913, Jack Johnson was convicted of violating the 39 Mann Act and sentenced to 1 year and 1 day in Federal prison; and

40 WHEREAS, Jack Johnson fled the United States to Canada and 41 various European and South American countries; and

3 Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas; and

5 matches, but never regained the Heavyweight Championship title; 6 and

7 WHEREAS, Jack Johnson served his country during World War

18 conviction prompted by his success in the boxing ring and his 19 relationships with white women; and
