AN ACT relating to juvenile justice; revising provisions governing the sealing of juvenile records; setting forth factors that the juvenile court may consider in determining whether a child has been rehabilitated to the satisfaction of the juvenile court; providing that certain portions of juvenile records relating to certain civil judgments must not be sealed until the judgment is satisfied or expires; including the Chief of the Youth Parole Bureau of the Division of Child and Family Services of the Department of Health and Human Services as a person entitled to notification of the filing of a petition for the sealing of juvenile records and authorized to testify at a hearing on the petition if the circumstances warrant; revising the circumstances in which the juvenile court may order the inspection of sealed juvenile records; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, if a child is less than 21 years of age, the child or a probation officer on behalf of the child may petition the juvenile court for an order sealing all records relating to the child. (NRS 62H.130) Section 1 of this bill revises the requirements for such a petition to be filed. Existing law also provides that the juvenile court shall enter an order sealing all records relating to a child if the juvenile court finds that: (1) during the previous 3 years, the child has not been convicted of a felony or of any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; and (2) the child has been rehabilitated to the satisfaction of the juvenile court. (NRS 62H.130) Section 1 instead provides that if the juvenile court makes such findings, then the juvenile court: (1) may enter an order sealing all records relating to the child if the child is less than 18 years of age; and (2) shall enter an order sealing all records relating to the child if the child is 18 years of age or older. Section 1 also: (1) sets forth various factors that the juvenile court may consider in determining whether a child has been rehabilitated to the satisfaction of the juvenile court; and (2) provides that if the juvenile court retains jurisdiction over a civil judgment and a person against whom the civil judgment was entered, the case caption, case number and order entering the civil judgment must not be sealed until the civil judgment is satisfied or expires.

Existing law requires the juvenile court to notify the district attorney and, in certain circumstances, the chief probation officer, if a petition is filed to seal juvenile records. Additionally, the district attorney and the chief probation officer, any of their deputies or any other person who has evidence that is relevant to consideration of the petition is authorized to testify at the hearing on the petition. (NRS 62H.130, 62H.150) Sections 1 and 3 of this bill include the Chief of the Youth Parole Bureau of the Division of Child and Family Services of the Department of Health and Human Services as a person who, if the circumstances warrant, is entitled to notification of the filing of a petition for the sealing of juvenile records and is authorized to testify at a hearing on the petition.

Existing law further provides that the juvenile court may order the inspection of juvenile records that are sealed in certain circumstances, including if the juvenile court determines that the inspection of the records is necessary to perform bona fide outcome and recidivism studies. (NRS 62H.170) Section 4 of this bill: (1) adds to these circumstances the situation in which the person who is the subject of the records has committed an act which subjects the person to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and which may form the basis of a civil action and a person who, in good faith, intends to bring or has brought the civil action, or any other person who is a party to the civil action, petitions the juvenile court to permit inspection of the records to obtain information relating to the person who is the subject of the records; and (2) specifies that performing bona fide outcome and recidivism studies may include using personal identifying information from sealed juvenile records to perform criminal background checks on persons who were adjudicated pursuant to title 5 of NRS.
