CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to foster care; authorizing a licensing authority to conduct a background check on a person who routinely supervises a child in a foster home; requiring an applicant or person licensed to conduct a foster home to prevent such a person from being present in the foster home if the background check reports certain prior criminal convictions of the person; allowing a person who routinely supervises a child in a foster home for whom an investigation is conducted an opportunity to correct such information; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires a person to be licensed to conduct a foster home. (NRS 424.030) Existing law requires the licensing authority that licenses foster homes to obtain certain information on the background and personal history of each applicant for a license, person who is licensed to conduct a foster home, employee of that applicant or licensee and certain residents of a foster home who are 18 years of age or older. (NRS 424.031) Section 1 of this bill authorizes the licensing authority or a person designated by the licensing authority to obtain such information on a person who is 18 years of age or older who routinely supervises a child in a foster home.

Existing law requires each applicant for a license to conduct a foster home, person who is licensed to conduct a foster home, employee of that applicant or licensee and certain residents of a foster home who are 18 years of age or older to submit a complete set of fingerprints and certain documentation to the licensing authority that licenses foster homes. If the licensing authority determines that the applicant or licensee has committed a certain crime, the licensing authority may deny, suspend or revoke the license. If the licensing authority determines that an employee or certain resident who is 18 years of age or older has committed a certain crime, the licensee is required to terminate the employment of that person, and may be subject to discipline for failing to do so. (NRS 424.033) Section 2 of this bill requires a person who is 18 years of age or older who routinely supervises a child in a foster home for whom an investigation is conducted pursuant to section 1 to submit to the same background investigation by the licensing authority that licenses foster homes. In addition, if the licensing authority that licenses foster homes determines that the person has been convicted of a certain offense, the applicant or licensee is required to ensure that the person is not present in the home and may be subject to discipline for failing to do so.

Existing law requires an applicant or licensee to terminate the employment of an employee or remove a resident from the foster home upon receiving certain information regarding prior criminal convictions of the employee or resident. Existing law also provides such an employee or resident an opportunity to correct such information before being terminated. (NRS 424.0335) Section 3 of this bill requires a licensee to prevent any person who is 18 years of age or older who routinely supervises a child in a foster home for whom an investigation is conducted pursuant to section 1 from continuing to supervise a child in the foster home upon receiving such information about the person and allows the person to correct such information.
