Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under certain circumstances, existing law sets forth procedures for filling a vacancy in a nomination for a nonpartisan or partisan office, except that no changes may be made to the ballot after a statutorily-prescribed date preceding any general election. If, after that date, a vacancy occurs in a nomination, the nominee's name must remain on the ballot for the general election and, if that person is elected, a vacancy in the office exists. (NRS 293.165, 293.166, 293.368, 293C.190, 293C.370) Further, under existing law, if a candidate whose name appears on a ballot is disqualified from entering upon the duties of an office or dies after the deadline for making changes to the ballot has passed, the Secretary of State and local election officials are required to post a sign at each polling place where the person's name will appear on the ballot notifying voters of the candidate's disqualification or death. (NRS 293.184, 293.302, 293C.1865, 293C.291)

This bill revises the legal rules, standards and procedures that apply to a person who is or becomes an ineligible candidate during an election. Section 1.5 of this bill defines the term "ineligible candidate" to mean a person who is a candidate for any office and who: (1) dies; (2) is adjudicated insane or mentally incompetent; (3) fails to meet any qualification required for the office; or (4) is found by a court to be disqualified from entering upon the duties of the office.

In the absence of a statute prescribing a different rule, the general rule under the common law is that the votes cast for a deceased, disqualified or ineligible candidate are not treated as void but are counted in determining the outcome of the election with regard to the other candidates, which renders the election nugatory and prevents the election of the candidate who receives the next highest number of votes. (Ingersoll v. Lamb, 75 Nev. 1, 4 (1959)) Sections 1.7, 1.5, 18.3 and 26 of this bill abrogate the common-law rule and provide that any vote cast for an ineligible candidate is a nullity and void and must not be given any legal force or effect for the purposes of determining the outcome of the election. Sections 1.8 and 17.4-17.9 of this bill also provide that an ineligible candidate may not demand or receive a recount of the vote at the election or contest the results of the election.

Sections 2 and 18.5 of this bill provide that the name of an ineligible candidate must not appear on the ballot at any election unless the period for making changes on the ballot has elapsed. If the period has elapsed, local election officials must provide notice to the voters at each affected polling place, on or near each mechanical voting device and on or with each paper ballot and absent ballot that the ineligible candidate is not eligible to take office and that any vote cast for the ineligible candidate will be a nullity and void and will not be given any legal force or effect for the purposes of determining the outcome of the election.

Under existing law, there are several different types of preelection court actions that may be brought to challenge a candidate on grounds that the candidate fails to meet any qualification required for the office, including actions for a declaratory judgment or a writ of mandamus. (NRS 281.050, 293.182, 293C.186; DeStefano v. Berkus, 121 Nev. 627, 628-31 (2005); Child v. Lomax, 124 Nev. 600, 604-05 (2008)) Section 2.5 of this bill provides that in any preelection action where the court finds that a candidate fails to meet any qualification required for the office: (1) the candidate becomes an ineligible candidate and local election officials must take appropriate action to remove the candidate's name from the ballot or provide the required notice to voters; (2) the candidate is disqualified from taking office; and (3) the court may order the candidate to pay the attorney's fees and costs of the party who brought the action, including the Attorney General or a district attorney or city attorney.

Under existing law, certain state and local officials must issue a certificate of election to the candidate receiving the highest number of votes for an office as official recognition of the candidate's election to the office. (NRS 4.020, 218A.210, 245.010, 258.010, 267.050, 283.130, 293.034, 293.393-293.397, 293.435, 293C.387, 293C.395, 386.260, 539.157; Caliente City Charter § 5.100; Carlin City Charter § 5.090; Carson City Charter § 5.100; Elko City Charter § 5.090; Henderson City Charter § 5.100; Las Vegas City Charter § 5.100; North Las Vegas City Charter § 5.080; Reno City Charter § 5.100; Sparks City Charter § 5.100; Wells City Charter § 5.090; Yerington City Charter § 5.090) Sections 3.7, 17.1-17.3, 17.9, 28-28.4, 29.1, 29.5, 29.6, 29.8, 31, 36, 40, 46, 49, 52, 54, 58, 62, 66, 69, 72, 75 and 78 of this bill provide that if the name of an ineligible candidate could not be removed from the ballot, a certificate of election must not be issued to the ineligible candidate regardless of the number of votes cast for the ineligible candidate that are a nullity and void.

Existing law sets forth procedures for filling certain vacancies in a nomination for a nonpartisan or partisan office that occur before a statutorily-prescribed date preceding any general election. (NRS 293.165, 293.166, 293C.190) Section 3 of this bill prohibits a vacancy in a nomination for a partisan office from being filled if the vacancy occurs because the candidate fails to meet any qualification required for the office or is found by a court to be disqualified from taking office, except that the prohibition does not apply to such a vacancy occurring before certain special elections. If a vacancy in a nomination for a nonpartisan or partisan office occurs for certain other reasons, sections 4, 4.5 and 22.5 of this bill allow such a vacancy to be filled in the manner provided by existing law before the statutorily-prescribed date preceding the general election.

Under existing law, the Legislature may enact statutory qualifications to be a candidate for an elective office which are in addition to any constitutional qualifications required for the office. (Mengelkamp v. List, 88 Nev. 542, 544-45 (1972); Riter v. Douglass, 32 Nev. 400, 435-36 (1910)) Such additional statutory qualifications may include residency requirements, and both the United States Supreme Court and the Nevada Supreme Court have upheld residency requirements that require a candidate to be a state resident for 2 or more years. (Clements v. Fashing, 457 U.S. 957, 967-68 (1982) (explaining that the Court upheld New Hampshire's 7-year state residency requirement for gubernatorial candidates when it summarily affirmed the lower court's decision in Chimento v. Stark, 353 F. Supp. 1211 (D.N.H. 1973), summarily aff'd, 414 U.S. 802 (1973)); Schaefer v. Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct., No. 65361 (Nev. Apr. 14, 2014) (upholding Nevada's 2-year state residency requirement for State Controller candidates in NRS 227.010))

Existing law sets forth certain residency requirements for candidates. In particular, a candidate must actually, as opposed to constructively, reside in the district to which the office pertains for at least 30 days preceding the date of the close of filing for candidacy. (NRS 293.1755, 293C.200) Additionally, a candidate for election or appointment to the Legislature must be an actual, as opposed to constructive, resident of this State for 1 year preceding the person's election or appointment. (NRS 218A.200) Sections 6 and 23 of this bill provide that all candidates must be an actual resident of the district to which the office pertains for at least ~~180~~ 90 days preceding the date of the close of filing for candidacy. Section 29 of this bill provides that a candidate for election or appointment to the Legislature must be an actual resident of: (1) this State for 1 year immediately preceding the person's election or appointment; and (2) the legislative district prescribed by law for the office for at least ~~180~~ 90 days immediately preceding the date of the close of filing of, as applicable, declarations or acceptances of candidacy for the office or applications for appointment to the office.

Existing law: (1) requires a candidate to file a declaration or acceptance of candidacy before his or her name may appear on a ballot; and (2) provides that a candidate who knowingly and willfully files a declaration or acceptance of candidacy which contains a false statement regarding residency is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. (NRS 293.1755, 293.177, 293C.185, 293C.200) Sections 6, 7, 20 and 23 of this bill provide that a candidate who knowingly and willfully files a declaration or acceptance of candidacy which contains a false statement is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Existing law requires a candidate for election or appointment to the Legislature to meet certain qualifications for the office. (NRS 218A.200) A candidate for election to the Legislature must also file a declaration of residency with his or her declaration or acceptance of candidacy. (NRS 293.181) Sections 8 and 29 of this bill provide that any such candidate who knowingly and willfully files a declaration or acceptance of candidacy, a declaration of residency or an application for appointment which contains a false statement is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Under existing law, a person who receives a certificate of election or appointment to office as a Legislator must take and subscribe to the official oath before taking office. (NRS 218A.220) Section 29.2 of this bill prohibits a person from taking and subscribing to the official oath as a Legislator if, after the person files a declaration or acceptance of candidacy and on or before the date of the general election, a court finds that the person is an ineligible candidate because the person fails to meet any qualification required for the office.

Before the Assembly meets for each regular session, existing law requires the Secretary of State to make out a roll from the election returns of the persons who received the highest number of votes to be elected as members of the Assembly, and the members whose names appear upon the roll must be allowed to participate in the organization of the Assembly. (NRS 218A.400) Section 29.4 of this bill provides that if the name of an ineligible candidate for office as a member of the Assembly could not be removed from the ballot, the Secretary of State shall not include the ineligible candidate upon the roll of the persons elected as members of the Assembly and the name of the ineligible candidate must not appear upon the roll regardless of the number of votes cast for the ineligible candidate that are a nullity and void.

The Nevada Supreme Court has interpreted existing law to authorize an elector to file a written challenge to a candidate's qualifications not later than 5 working days after the last day for the candidate to formally withdraw his or her candidacy. Depending on the state or local office being sought by the candidate, the Attorney General or the appropriate district attorney or city attorney must review the challenge and, if he or she determines that probable cause exists to support the challenge, must bring a preelection court action challenging the candidate's qualifications within a statutorily-prescribed period. (NRS 293.182, 293C.186; Williams v. Clark County Dist. Att'y, 118 Nev. 473, 477-79 (2002) (interpreting NRS 293.182 to permit an elector to file a written challenge not later than 5 working days after the last day for the candidate to formally withdraw his or her candidacy)) Sections 9 and 21 of this bill codify the Nevada Supreme Court's interpretation so that the period for an elector to file such a written challenge and the period for the Attorney General or the appropriate district attorney or city attorney to review such a challenge and bring a preelection court action are calculated using working days instead of calendar days.

Existing law requires printed electioneering communications, such as campaign signs or political advertising distributed by mail, to contain disclosures providing certain information about the person or organization that paid for the communications. (NRS 294A.347, 294A.348) Sections 28.21 and 28.22 of this bill specify minimum font sizes and certain typeface requirements for such disclosures appearing on printed electioneering communications.

Existing law defines the term "actual residence" to mean the place where a candidate is legally domiciled and maintains a permanent habitation, and when a candidate maintains more than one place of permanent habitation, the place designated by the candidate as his or her principal permanent habitation is deemed to be the candidate's actual residence. (NRS 281.050) The Nevada Supreme Court has held that the place designated by the candidate as his or her principal permanent habitation must be the place where the candidate actually resides and is legally domiciled in order for the candidate to be eligible to the office. (Williams v. Clark County Dist. Att'y, 118 Nev. 473, 484-86 (2002); Chachas v. Miller, 120 Nev. 51, 53-56 (2004)) Section 30 of this bill amends existing law to reflect the Supreme Court's holding.

The remaining sections of this bill make conforming changes to carry out the revisions to existing law.
