AN ACT relating to elections; providing certain remedies and penalties in preelection challenges to the qualifications of a candidate; increasing the penalty for a candidate ~~[for office]~~ who files certain documents containing a false statement; revising the forms for declarations of candidacy, acceptances of candidacy and declarations of residency; requiring certain proofs of identity and residency when filing for candidacy; ~~providing for the payment of certain costs, expenses and attorney's fees for a successful challenge to the residency qualifications of a candidate for office;~~ making conforming changes to the definition of "actual residence" for purposes of candidacy; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, there are several different types of preelection court actions that may be brought to challenge a candidate on grounds that the candidate fails to meet any qualification required for the office, including actions for a declaratory judgment or a writ of mandamus. (NRS 281.050, 293.182, 293C.186; DeStefano v. Berkus, 121 Nev. 627, 628-31 (2005); Child v. Lomax, 124 Nev. 600, 604-05 (2008)) Section 1 of this bill provides that in any preelection action where the court finds that a candidate fails to meet any qualification required for the office: (1) the candidate is disqualified from taking office; and (2) the court may order the candidate to pay the attorney's fees and costs of the party who brought the action, including the Attorney General or a district attorney or city attorney.

Existing law : (1) requires a candidate to file a declaration or acceptance of candidacy before his or her name may appear on a ballot; and (2) provides that a ~~person~~ candidate who knowingly and willfully files a declaration or acceptance of candidacy which contains a false statement regarding residency is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. (NRS 293.1755, 293.177, 293C.185, 293C.200) Existing law also requires a candidate for election to the Legislature to file a declaration of residency with his or her declaration or acceptance of candidacy. (NRS 293.181) Sections 1.5, 2, 3, ~~and~~ 5 and 7 of this bill provide that a candidate who knowingly and willfully ~~(filing)~~ files a declaration of candidacy, acceptance of candidacy or declaration of residency ~~(with any)~~ which contains a false statement is ~~(punishable as)~~ guilty of a category ~~(C)~~ E felony. ~~(Sections 1 and 7 of this bill make conforming changes.)~~

Existing law specifies the forms for a declaration or acceptance of candidacy and a declaration of residency and requires certain information to be included on the forms. Existing law also requires a candidate ~~(for office in a primary election to file a declaration or acceptance of candidacy and also, for the office of State Legislator, a declaration of residency, and when filing, the person must)~~ to present the filing officer with one type of acceptable identification or documentation as proof of the candidate's identity and residency. ~~(H)~~ when the candidate files a declaration or acceptance of candidacy. (NRS 293.177, 293.181, 293C.185)

Sections 2, 3 and 5 revise the forms for a declaration or acceptance of candidacy and a declaration of residency to include a statement that the ~~(person)~~ candidate understands that knowingly and willfully filing such a ~~(declaration with)~~ document which contains a false statement is a crime punishable as a category ~~(C)~~ E felony. ~~(H)~~ and also subjects the candidate to a civil action disqualifying the candidate from taking office and making the candidate liable upon order of the court to pay the attorney's fees and costs of the party who brings the action. Sections 2 and 5 also require the candidate to present the filing officer with two ~~(forms)~~ types of acceptable identification and documentation as proof of the candidate's identity and residency.

~~(Existing law allows an elector to challenge the qualifications of a person filing for candidacy. (NRS 293.182, 293C.186) Sections 4 and 6 of this bill provide that if a court finds that the person knowingly and willfully made a false statement regarding residency when filing for candidacy, the person is required to pay the costs, expenses and attorney's fees incurred by the Attorney General, district attorney or city attorney, as applicable.)~~

~~(Existing law authorizes a district court to determine whether a candidate meets the residency requirement in an action for declaratory judgment. (NRS 281.050) Section 8 of this bill provides that if the district court finds that the person knowingly and willfully made a false statement regarding residency when filing for candidacy, the person is required to pay the costs, expenses and attorney's fees of the prevailing party.)~~

Existing law defines the term "actual residence" to mean the place where a candidate is legally domiciled and maintains a permanent habitation, and when a candidate maintains more than one place of permanent habitation, the place designated by the candidate as his or her principal permanent habitation is deemed to be the candidate's actual residence. (NRS 281.050) The Nevada Supreme Court has held that the place designated by the candidate as his or her principal permanent habitation must be the place where the candidate actually resides and is legally domiciled in order for the candidate to be eligible to the office. (Williams v. Clark County Dist. Att'y, 118 Nev. 473, 484-86 (2002); Chachas v. Miller, 120 Nev. 51, 53-56 (2004)) Section 8 of this bill amends existing law to reflect the Supreme Court's holding.
