AN ACT relating to personal financial administration; revising provisions relating to the distribution and administration of the estate of a deceased person; revising provisions governing certain nonprobate transfers; revising provisions relating to the creation and administration of trusts; providing for the creation and administration of public benefit trusts; revising the powers that may be exercised by a trustee; revising provisions relating to directed trusts; revising provisions relating to the jurisdiction of a court in cases concerning the administration of the estate of a deceased person and the administration of trusts; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Sections 1 and 2 of this bill provide methods for recording the termination of a life estate in a manner similar to existing law for terminating a joint tenancy.

Section 3 of this bill establishes the effective date for the existing law concerning the effect of divorce on certain instruments.

Existing law provides that, with one exception, a domestic partner has the identical rights and responsibilities as those granted to or imposed upon a spouse. (NRS 122A.200) Sections 5, 7 and 10 of this bill clarify that any reference to a spouse in title 12 of NRS is equally a reference to a domestic partner. Sections 35.3-35.7 of this bill provide that same clarification with respect to title 13 of NRS.

Existing law defines the term “interested person” for the purpose of determining who is entitled to receive notice of, and participate in, a proceeding relating to the estate of a deceased person. (NRS 132.185) Sections 9 and 11 of this bill amend this definition to include all persons whose interest in an estate or trust will be materially affected by a decision of a fiduciary or a decision of the court and that a person’s status as an interested person is determined according to the particular purposes of, and the matter involved in, each proceeding.

Existing law provides that if a decedent executed a will before his or her marriage, the will is revoked as to the surviving spouse of the decedent unless the spouse is provided for in the will or is mentioned in the will in such a way that indicates an intent not to make a provision for the spouse. (NRS 133.110) Section 12 of this bill revises this provision so that such a will is not revoked if the will refers to a future spouse by name.

22 Section 13 of this bill provides that if a declaratory judgment establishing the validity of a 23 will is entered during the lifetime of the person executing the will, the validity of the will 24 cannot be challenged after the death of the person executing the will. Section 13 does not 25 prohibit an action to establish that the will was revoked or that the decedent executed a valid 26 later will.

27 Existing law establishes the qualifications for a person to serve as executor or 28 administrator of a decedent's estate. (NRS 138.020, 139.010) Sections 14 and 16 of this bill 29 authorize a court to disqualify a person from acting as the executor or administrator of a 30 decedent's estate upon proof of any compelling reason.

31 Existing law establishes the authority of administrators with the will annexed and the 32 order of appointment for such administrators. (NRS 138.090) Section 15 of this bill provides 33 certain discretionary powers to administrators with the will annexed. Section 15 also provides 34 that a person who is expressly excluded as a beneficiary or as a fiduciary in a will is ineligible 35 to serve as an administrator with the will annexed and that the court has discretion to disregard 36 the order of priority for the appointment of an administrator under existing law to favor the 37 appointment of certain beneficiaries of the will as administrators with the will annexed.

38 Section 17 of this bill provides a technical correction to NRS 143.380 concerning the sale 39 of property held in an estate after the personal representative is granted full authority under 40 the Independent Administration of Estates Act.

41 Existing law requires an appraisal of certain property of the estate of a deceased person 42 and an inventory of all estate property. (NRS 144.010, 144.020, 144.040) Sections 18 and 19 43 of this bill authorize the waiver of such an appraisal or inventory in certain circumstances.

44 Existing law provides that if a person dies leaving an estate the gross value of which, after 45 deducting encumbrances, is $100,000 or less, the estate must not be administered and must be 46 assigned and set apart, after directing such payments as the court deems just, for the support of 47 the surviving spouse or any minor children of the decedent. (NRS 146.070) Section 20 of this 48 bill authorizes the court to reduce the amount assigned and set apart for the surviving spouse 49 or any minor children of the decedent by the amount of certain nonprobate transfers to those 50 persons.

51 Sections 25 and 63 of this bill enact provisions governing personal jurisdiction over 52 certain persons in proceedings related to the estate of a deceased person and the administration 53 of a trust and governing the law to be applied in certain proceedings related to trusts.

54 Existing law creates a presumption that certain transfers at death are void due to fraud, 55 undue influence or coercion. (NRS 155.097, 155.0975) Sections 33 and 34 of this bill create 56 the same presumption for certain transfers that occur during the lifetime of the transferor and 57 further define the applicability of when the presumption of undue influence arises. Existing 58 law authorizes the court to impose certain sanctions on a person whom the court finds to be a 59 vexatious litigant in a proceeding related to the administration of the estate of a deceased 60 person or a trust. (NRS 155.165) Section 35 of this bill includes a trustee or a personal 61 representative as a person who may be a vexatious litigant.

62 Existing law enumerates the powers of a trustee. (Chapter 163 of NRS) Sections 40 and 63 41 of this bill add to the powers of a trustee the power to combine or divide trusts and the 64 power to change the name of a trust in certain circumstances. Section 46.5 of this bill 65 authorizes certain trustees to terminate certain trusts that have a value less than 66 $100,000 or are uneconomical to administer if the trustee concludes that the value of the 67 property held by the trust is insufficient to justify the cost of administering the trust.

68 Existing law governs the administration of directed trusts, which are trusts under which 69 someone other than the trustee has the authority to direct the trustee to take certain actions.
70 (NRS 163.553-163.556) Sections 42, 43, 55 and 56 of this bill amend provisions governing 71 directed trusts. Section 55 provides that a trustee of a directed trust is not liable individually 72 or as a fiduciary for a loss resulting from the trustee's compliance with certain directions or 73 failure to take any proposed action that required an approval which was not given or was 74 contingent upon a condition that was not satisfied. Section 44 of this bill provides for the 75 creation and administering of public benefit trusts, which are trusts without identifiable 76 beneficiaries that are not charitable trusts and are established to further one or more 77 specifically declared religious, scientific, literary, educational, community development, 78 personal improvement or philanthropic purpose that is not illegal or against public policy.
79 Existing law provides that a trust may be created by a declaration by the owner of property 80 that he or she holds the property as trustee. (NRS 163.002, 163.004, 163.006) Section 48 of

81 this bill provides that regardless of the formal title to the property, in the absence of a contrary 82 declaration by the owner or a transfer of the property to a third party: (1) property declared to 83 be trust property and all the income and reinvestment thereof remains trust property; and (2) 84 any additions or contributions to accounts or certain other property declared to be trust 85 property are also trust property. Section 49 of this bill clarifies the powers a settlor has in 86 creating terms of a trust and establishes a default position that a trust is irrevocable unless and 87 to the extent a settlor specifically reserves the right to amend such trust.

88 Section 45 of this bill provides for the appointment of a successor trustee where a trust 89 contains no provision for such appointment. Section 46 of this bill authorizes a fiduciary to 90 classify gains from the sale or exchange of trust assets as income for tax purposes. Section 53
91 of this bill provides that a beneficiary holding a discretionary interest in a trust has no 92 enforceable right to a distribution. Section 50 of this bill provides for the creation of 93 charitable and public benefit trusts. Sections 55 and 56 of this bill further extend the 94 provisions establishing the situations in which a directed fiduciary is not liable for actions 95 taken on behalf of the trust. Existing law permits a trustee with discretion or authority to 96 distribute trust income or principal to decant such income or principal to a second trust. (NRS 97 163.556) Section 59 of this bill provides choice of law provisions applicable to the 98 construction and administration of trusts. Section 60 of this bill allows a trustee to include 99 language in the trust requiring that disputes arising thereunder are subject to arbitration and 100 provides a method for such arbitration. Under existing law, in order for a court to assume 101 jurisdiction over a case involving a trust, a petition to confirm a trustee must be filed. (NRS 102 164.010) Sections 61 and 62 of this bill provide for the creation and enforcement of 103 nonjudicial settlement agreements between all indispensable parties to a trust. Section 63 of 104 this bill provides for a petition requesting the court to assume jurisdiction without confirming 105 the trustee.

106 Section 64 of this bill provides a court with exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether 107 property not formally titled in the name of the trust constitutes trust property and where a 108 person contests the validity of the trust in a declaratory judgment action. Section 64 further 109 defines the circumstances and situations in which a trustee may decant a trust to a second trust 110 in light of federal taxation laws. Section 66 of this bill authorizes a trustee presenting a 111 certification of trust to include a declaration of a trust's domicile and governing law. Under 112 the Uniform Prudent Investor Act, as adopted by this State, a trustee is authorized to take 113 certain action without court approval if all interested persons consent or acquiesce in such 114 action. (NRS 164.725) Section 67 of this bill authorizes a trustee, trust protector or trust
115 advisor to use that same procedure for any aspect of trust administration. Existing law 116 provides that a trustee who invests and manages trust property owes a duty to the beneficiaries 117 to comply with the prudent investor rule set forth in existing law, but that a trustee is not liable 118 to a beneficiary to the extent the trustee acted in reasonable reliance on the terms of the trust.
119 (NRS 164.740) Section 68 of this bill provides that such a trustee is not liable to a beneficiary 120 if the trustee determined in good faith not to diversify the investments of the trust in 121 accordance with existing law.

122 Existing law governs the duty of a trustee to inform and account to a trust's beneficiaries.
123 (Chapter 165 of NRS) Sections 70-85 of this bill revise chapter 165 of NRS to restructure the 124 trust accounting rules applicable to testamentary and nontestamentary trusts. Nevada's current 125 law provides different requirements for accountings applicable to testamentary trusts and 126 nontestamentary trusts; these revisions establish one set of accounting rules for both types of 127 trusts.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. NRS 40.515 is hereby amended to read as follows:

49 each affidavit received by the county recorder pursuant to subsection 1 or 2 during 50 the immediately preceding month to the Department of Health and Human Services 51 in any format and by any medium approved by the Department.

1 Sec. 3. NRS 111.781 is hereby amended to read as follows:

2 111.781 1. Except as otherwise provided by the express terms of a 3 governing instrument, a court order or a contract relating to the division of the 4 marital estate made between the divorced persons before or after the marriage, 5 divorce or annulment, the divorce or annulment of a marriage:

6 (a) Revokes any revocable:

7 (1) Disposition or appointment of property made by a divorced person to 8 his or her former spouse in a governing instrument and any disposition or 9 appointment created by law or in a governing instrument to a relative of the 10 divorced person's former spouse;

11 (2) Provision in a governing instrument conferring a general or nongeneral 12 power of appointment on the divorced person's former spouse or on a relative of 13 the divorced person's former spouse; and 14 (3) Nomination in a governing instrument that nominates a divorced 15 person's former spouse or a relative of the divorced person's former spouse to serve 16 in any fiduciary or representative capacity, including a personal representative 17 capacity, including a personal representative, executor, trustee, conservator, agent 18 or guardian; and

19 (b) Severs the interest of the former spouses in property held by them at the 20 time of the divorce or annulment as joint tenants with the right of survivorship or as 21 community property with a right of survivorship and transforms the interests of the 22 former spouses into equal tenancies in common.

23 2. A severance under paragraph (b) of subsection 1 does not affect any third-24 party interest in property acquired for value and in good faith reliance on an 25 apparent title by survivorship in the survivor of the former spouses unless a writing 26 declaring the severance has been noted, registered, filed or recorded in records 27 appropriate to the kind and location of the property which records are relied upon, 28 in the ordinary course of transactions involving such property, as evidence of 29 ownership.

30 3. The provisions of a governing instrument are given effect as if the former 31 spouse and relatives of the former spouse disclaimed all provisions revoked by this 32 section or, in the case of a revoked nomination in a fiduciary or representative 33 capacity, as if the former spouse and relatives of the former spouse died 34 immediately before the divorce or annulment.

35 4. Any provisions revoked solely by this section are revived by the divorced 36 person's remarriage to the former spouse or by a nullification of the divorce or 37 annulment.

38 5. Unless a court in an action commenced pursuant to chapter 125 of NRS
39 specifically orders otherwise, a restraining order entered pursuant to NRS 125.050 40 does not preclude a party to such an action from making or changing beneficiary 41 designations that specify who will receive the party's assets upon the party's death.

42 6. A payor or other third party is not liable for having made a payment or 43 transferred an item of property or any other benefit to a beneficiary designated in a 44 governing instrument affected by the provisions of this section or for having taken 45 any other action in good faith reliance on the validity of the governing instrument 46 before the payor or other third party received written or actual notice of any event 47 affecting a beneficiary designation. A payor or other third party is liable for a 48 payment made or other action taken after the payor or other third party received 49 written or actual notice of a claimed forfeiture or revocation under this section.

50 7. Written notice of the divorce, annulment or remarriage or written notice of 51 a complaint or petition for divorce or annulment must be mailed to the payor's or 52 other third party's main office or home by registered or certified mail, return receipt 53 requested, or served upon the payor or other third party in the same manner as a

1 summons in a civil action. Upon receipt of written notice of the divorce, annulment 2 or remarriage, a payor or other third party may pay any amount owed or transfer or 3 deposit any item of property held by it to or with the court having jurisdiction of the 4 probate proceedings relating to the decedent's estate or, if no proceedings have 5 been commenced, to or with the court having jurisdiction of probate proceedings 6 relating to decedents' estates located in the county of the decedent's residence. The 7 court shall hold the funds or item of property and, upon its determination under this 8 section, shall order disbursement or transfer in accordance with the determination.
9 Payments, transfers or deposits made to or with the court discharge the payor or 10 other third party from all claims for the value of amounts paid to or items of 11 property transferred to or deposited with the court.

12 8. A person who purchases property from a former spouse, relative of a 13 former spouse or any other person for value and without notice, or who receives 14 from a former spouse, relative of a former spouse or any other person a payment or 15 other item of property in partial or full satisfaction of a legally enforceable 16 obligation, is neither obligated under this section to return the payment, item of 17 property or benefit nor is liable under this section for the amount of the payment or 18 the value of the item of property or benefit. A former spouse, relative of a former 19 spouse or other person who, not for value, received a payment, item of property or 20 any other benefit to which that person is not entitled under this section is obligated 21 to return the payment, item of property or benefit or is personally liable for the 22 amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or benefit to the person 23 who is entitled to it under this section.

24 9. If this section or any part of this section is preempted by federal law with 25 respect to a payment, an item of property or any other benefit covered by this 26 section, a former spouse, relative of the former spouse or any other person who, not 27 for value, received a payment, item of property or any other benefit to which that 28 person is not entitled under this section is obligated to return that payment, item of 29 property or benefit or is personally liable for the amount of the payment or the 30 value of the item of property or benefit to the person who would have been entitled 31 to it were this section or part of this section not preempted.

32 10. This section applies only to nonprobate transfers which become 33 effective because of the death of a person on or after October 1, ~~2015,~~ 2011, 34 regardless of when the divorce or annulment occurred.

35 11. As used in this section:

36 (a) "Disposition or appointment of property" includes a transfer of an item of 37 property or any other benefit to a beneficiary designated in a governing instrument.

38 (b) "Divorce or annulment" means any divorce or annulment or any dissolution 39 or declaration of invalidity of a marriage. A decree of separation that does not 40 terminate the status of husband and wife is not a divorce for purposes of this 41 section.

42 (c) "Divorced person" includes a person whose marriage has been annulled.

43 (d) "Governing instrument" means a governing instrument executed by a 44 divorced person before the divorce or annulment of the person's marriage to the 45 person's former spouse.

46 (e) "Relative of the divorced person's former spouse" means a person who is 47 related to the divorced person's former spouse by blood, adoption or affinity and 48 who, after the divorce or annulment, is not related to the divorced person by blood, 49 adoption or affinity.

50 (f) "Revocable," with respect to a disposition, appointment, provision or 51 nomination, means one under which the divorced person, at the time of the divorce 52 or annulment, was alone empowered, by law or under the governing instrument, to 53 cancel the designation in favor of the person's former spouse or former spouse's

1 relative, whether or not the divorced person was then empowered to designate 2 himself or herself in place of his or her former spouse or in place of his or her 3 former spouse's relative and whether or not the divorced person then had the 4 capacity to exercise the power.

5 Sec. 4. Chapter 132 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the 6 provisions set forth as sections 5 to 9, inclusive, of this act.

7 Sec. 5. "Domestic partners" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS
8 122A.030.

9 Sec. 6. "Foreign jurisdiction" means any jurisdiction other than this State.

10 Sec. 7. "Spouse" includes a domestic partner ~~+~~ as set forth in NRS
11 122A.200.

12 Sec. 8. "Testamentary trust" means a trust created by the terms of the will 13 of a person.

14 Sec. 9. 1. For the purposes of this title, a person is an interested person 15 with respect to:

16 (a) A judicial proceeding, a notice of a proposed action or a nonjudicial 17 settlement, if the person has or claims to have an enforceable right or interest 18 that may be materially affected by the outcome of that proceeding, proposed 19 action or nonjudicial settlement. While living, a settlor or a testator shall be 20 deemed to have an enforceable right with respect to any trust or will that he or 21 she created. For the purposes of this paragraph, a person may not claim to have a 22 right or interest under an estate or trust after the entry of an order of the court 23 declaring the right or interest invalid.

24 (b) An estate of a decedent, if the person:

25 (1) Is an heir, devisee, child, spouse, creditor, settlor or beneficiary;

26 (2) Has a property right in or claim against the estate of a decedent, 27 including, without limitation, the Director of the Department of Health and 28 Human Services in any case in which money is owed to the Department of Health 29 and Human Services as a result of the payment of benefits for Medicaid;

30 (3) Has priority for appointment as a personal representative; or 31 (4) Is any other fiduciary representing an interested person.

32 (c) A trust, if the person:

33 (1) Is a living settlor or, if a court has appointed a guardian of the estate 34 of the settlor, the guardian of the estate appointed by the court;

35 (2) Is the trustee, including, without limitation, each acting cotrustee;

36 (3) Holds the presently exercisable right to remove or replace the trustee

42 remainder beneficiary of that trust;

43 (7) Holds a presently exercisable power that permits the holder to 44 designate, remove or otherwise change the designation of a person who, pursuant 45 to this paragraph, would be an interested person;

46 (8) Is a creditor of the settlor who has a claim which has been accepted 47 by the trustee or who has asserted the trustee's liability therefor in a probate 48 proceeding or in a civil action under subsection 8 or 9 of NRS 111.779; or

49 (9) Is a creditor of the trust who has given the trustee written notice of its 50 claim.

51 (d) A revocable trust that is the subject of a petition under NRS 164.015 52 relating to the validity of the trust or any trust-related document, if the person,

1 after the death of the settlor, under the terms of any version of the trust 2 documents in dispute, would be:

3 (1) A current beneficiary or a remainder beneficiary of that trust; or 4 (2) A trustee or a successor trustee, including, without limitation, a 5 cotrustee.

6 (e) A will that, while the testator is still living, is the subject of a petition 7 under subsection 2 of NRS 30.040, if the person, after the death of the testator,

52 Sec. 62. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a nonjudicial 53 settlement agreement is effective when the agreement has been signed by all

1 indispensable parties. A party who is represented by another person pursuant to 2 NRS 164.038 shall be deemed to have signed an agreement when the person who 3 represents that party has signed the agreement.

27 Sec. 63. NRS 164.010 is hereby amended to read as follows:

28 164.010 1. Upon petition of any person appointed as trustee of an express 29 trust by any written instrument other than a will, or upon petition of a settlor or 32 application to ~~confirm the appointment of the trustee and specify the manner in~~ 33 ~~which the trustee must qualify. Thereafter the court has~~ assume jurisdiction of the 34 trust as a proceeding in rem.

35 2. If the court grants the petition ~~it may consider at the same time any~~ 36 ~~petition for instructions filed with the petition for confirmation,~~ the court:

37 (a) Has jurisdiction of the trust as a proceeding in rem;

38 (b) Shall be deemed to have personal jurisdiction over any person pursuant 39 to section 59 of this act;

41 the manner in which the trustee must qualify; and

42 (d) May consider at the same time granting orders on other matters relating 43 to the trust, including, without limitation, matters that might be addressed in a 44 declaratory judgment relating to the trust under subsection 2 of NRS 30.040 or 45 petitions filed pursuant to NRS 153.031 or 164.015 whether such matters are

47 more separate petitions that are filed concurrently with the petition to assume 48 jurisdiction.

49 3. At any time, the trustee may petition the court for removal of the trust from 50 continuing jurisdiction of the court.

51 4. For the purposes of this section, a trust is domiciled:

52 (a) In this State if there is a clear and sufficient nexus between the trust and 53 this State pursuant to subsection 4 of section 59 of this act.

1 (b) In a county of this State that provides the nexus required pursuant to 11 5. As used in this section, "written instrument" includes, without limitation, 12 an electronic trust as defined in NRS 163.0015.

13 Sec. 64. NRS 164.015 is hereby amended to read as follows:

14 164.015 1. The court has exclusive jurisdiction of proceedings initiated by 15 the petition of an interested person concerning the internal affairs of a 16 nontestamentary trust, including a revocable living trust while the settlor is still 17 living if the court determines that the settlor cannot adequately protect his or her 18 own interests or if the interested person shows that the settlor is incompetent or 19 susceptible to undue influence. Proceedings which may be maintained under this 20 section are those concerning the administration and distribution of trusts, the 21 declaration of rights and the determination of other matters involving trustees and 22 beneficiaries of trusts, including petitions with respect to a nontestamentary trust 23 for any appropriate relief provided with respect to a testamentary trust in NRS

31 written grounds for contesting the validity of the trust constitutes a pleading and 32 must conform with any rules applicable to pleadings in a civil action. This 33 subsection applies whether the person contesting the validity of the trust is the 35 trust is asserted under this section or subsection 2 of NRS 30.040.

36 4. In a proceeding pursuant to subsection 3, the competency of the settlor to 37 make the trust, the freedom of the settlor from duress, menace, fraud or undue 38 influence at the time of execution of the will, the execution and attestation of the 39 trust instrument, or any other question affecting the validity of the trust is a 40 question of fact and must be tried by the court, subject to the provisions of 41 subsection 5.

42 5. A court may consolidate the cases if there is a contest of a revocable 43 nontestamentary trust and a contest relating to a will executed on the same date. If a 44 jury is demanded pursuant to NRS 137.020 for the contest of the will, the court may 45 instruct the jury to render an advisory opinion with respect to an issue of fact 46 pursuant to subsection 4 in the contest of the trust.

47 6. Upon the hearing, the court shall enter such order as it deems appropriate.
48 The order is final and conclusive as to all matters determined and is binding in rem 49 upon the trust estate and upon the interests of all beneficiaries, vested or contingent, 50 except that appeal to the appellate court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to the 51 rules fixed by the Supreme Court pursuant to Section 4 of Article 6 of the Nevada 52 Constitution may be taken from the order within 30 days after notice of its entry by 53 filing notice of appeal with the clerk of the district court. The appellant shall mail a

1 copy of the notice to each person who has appeared of record. If the proceeding was 2 brought pursuant to subsection 3, 4 or 5, the court must also award costs pursuant to 3 chapter 18 of NRS.

4 7. ~~1A~~ Except as otherwise ordered by the court, a proceeding under this 5 section does not result in continuing supervisory proceedings ~~1-The~~, and the 6 administration of the trust must proceed expeditiously in a manner consistent with 7 the terms of the trust, without judicial intervention or the order, approval or other 8 action of any court, unless the jurisdiction of the court is invoked by an interested 9 person or exercised as provided by other law.

10 8. As used in this section, "nontestamentary trust" has the meaning 11 ascribed to it in section 37 of this act.

12 Sec. 65. NRS 164.025 is hereby amended to read as follows:

25 164.725 1. As used in this section, “action” includes a course of action and 26 a decision on whether or not to take action.

27 2. A trustee may provide a notice of proposed action regarding any matter 28 governed by NRS 163.556 or 164.700 to 164.925, inclusive. Except as otherwise 29 provided in the trust instrument, a trustee, trust protector or trust adviser may 30 provide a notice of proposed action regarding any aspect of the trust 31 administration of the trust within his or her scope of authority.

32 3. If a trustee, trust protector or trust adviser provides a notice of proposed 33 action, the trustee, trust protector or trust adviser shall mail the notice of proposed 34 action to every adult beneficiary who, at the time the notice is provided, receives, or 35 is entitled to receive, income under the trust or who would be entitled to receive a 36 distribution of principal if the trust were terminated. A notice of proposed action 37 need not be provided to a person who consents in writing to the proposed action. A 38 consent to a proposed action may be executed before or after the proposed action is 39 taken.

40 4. The notice of proposed action must state:

41 (a) That the notice is provided pursuant to this section;

4 6. If no beneficiary entitled to receive notice of a proposed action objects to 5 the proposed action and the other requirements of this section are met, the trustee is 6 not liable to any present or future beneficiary with respect to that proposed action.

7 7. If the trustee, trust protector or trust adviser received a written objection 8 to the proposed action within the period specified in the notice, the trustee, trust 9 protector or trust adviser or a beneficiary may petition the court for an order to 10 take the action as proposed, take the action with modification or deny the proposed 11 action. A beneficiary who failed to object to the proposed action is not estopped 12 from opposing the proposed action. The burden is on a beneficiary to prove that the 13 proposed action should not be taken or should be modified. If the trustee, trust 14 protector or trust adviser takes the proposed action as approved by the court, the 15 trustee, trust protector or trust adviser is not liable to any beneficiary with respect 16 to that action.

17 8. If the trustee, trust protector or trust adviser decides not to take a

43 trustee has the authority to distribute the community property unless the trust 44 instrument expressly provides otherwise. The trustee may distribute the community 45 property on a non-pro rata basis so long as the fair market value of the distribution
