Explanation

(Use Additional Sheets of Attachments, if required)

If approved, this bill would require the inclusion of a question on the ballot for the 2016 General Election. While ballot question publication costs are paid by the individual counties, the counties are reimbursed for the costs from the Statutory Contingency Account (see NRS 293.253). As a result, this bill would require additional expenditures from the Statutory Contingency Account. However, because of the possible inclusion of other questions on the 2016 General Election ballot, the uncertain publication length of the ballot question, and outstanding legislation before the legislature, the cost to the Statutory Contingency Account cannot be determined at this time.
