Explanation

(Use Additional Sheets of Attachments, if required)

The fiscal impact to the agency could be significant based upon the number of complaints filed that would precipitate investigative; hearing and probationary period monitoring costs. Based on a conservative estimate of 170 complaints per year, we anticipate the investigative costs to be $70,500. A conservative estimate of 24% of those complaints requiring disciplinary hearings would result in an additional $108,000 fiscal impact per year.
