Explanation

(Use Additional Sheets of Attachments, if required)

BDR 54-692 will not have a fiscal impact to the Division of Public and Behavioral Health.

The training required under Section 1 is already being met for state staff and contractors due to accreditation requirements. The requirement to approve continuing education credits rests with the various professional clinical boards. Certain information is already being reported to the Council on Veterans Affairs; the Division would not incur additional costs by expanding this information reporting.
