Explanation

(Use Additional Sheets of Attachments, if required)

The Department of Corrections has reviewed BDR # 54-976 which creates the business of a private professional guardian. The proposed law establishes the licensure requirements for individuals or firms who perform the duties of a guardian. A licensee who doesn't abide by the requirements of public supervision imposed by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions will be guilty of a category D felony. As it is often the case with new crimes, the NDOC is unable to estimate the possible number of cases that will result in conviction. Thus, the impact of the proposed NRS cannot be determined at this time.
