Explanation

(Use Additional Sheets of Attachments, if required)

This agency has reviewed BDR 23-1103 which revises provisions relating to the participation of retired employees of certain local governing bodies in the Public Employees' Benefit Program. Should the language provide an avenue for local government retirees to enroll in the PEBP plan, PEBP believes there would be a fiscal impact on the plan, however, based on the language in the BDR, the Public Employees' Benefits Program is unable to make a determination as to what the potential fiscal impact would be.
