City/County: Douglas County Approved by: Paul Howell, Undersheriff Comment: This would require training of Deputies in the Patrol Division on the elements of this law and the related federal statutes and immigration forms. These calculations are based on the average wage of $25.21 per hour. Two hours of training for 50 officers for FY14-15. Subsequent fiscal years would be the same rate of pay, two hours of training and for about 10 officers.

City/County: White Pine County Approved by: Elizabeth Frances, Finance Director Comment: This will require the County to train officers and District Attorney office employees related to new regulations and to provide additional services to victims of crime. It will also involve additional enforcement related to the requirement of certain establishments to post signs which will also impact the caseload within the court systems. This will result in additional cost to the County. An exact amount cannot be estimated at this time.
