EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to trade practices; requiring a business that accepts a driver’s license for the purpose of identification to also accept a permanent resident card for that purpose; including permanent resident cards as proof of identity for various purposes; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law authorizes state and local governmental entities to accept a consular identification card for the purpose of identifying a person under certain circumstances. (NRS 232.006, 237.200) Sections 8 and 9 of this bill similarly authorize state and local governmental entities to accept a permanent resident card issued by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services of the Department of Homeland Security for the purpose of identifying a person. Section 1 of this bill prohibits a business that accepts a driver’s license or identification card issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles for the purpose of identifying a person from refusing to accept a permanent resident card for the same purpose. Sections 2-7 and 10-13 of this bill revise various provisions of existing law to provide for the use of a permanent resident card as proof of identity.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 597 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. If a business accepts a driver’s license or identification card issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles for the purpose

1 of identifying a customer, the business shall not refuse to accept a
2 permanent resident card for the same purpose.

3 2. As used in this section, "permanent resident card" means a
4 Permanent Resident Card issued by the United States Citizenship
5 and Immigration Services of the Department of Homeland
6 Security.

7 Sec. 2. NRS 597.940 is hereby amended to read as follows:

8 597.940 1. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, a
9 business shall not, without the customer's consent, record the 10 account number of any of a customer's credit cards on the 11 customer's check or draft as a condition of accepting that check or 12 draft. This subsection does not prohibit:

13 (a) The business from requiring the customer to produce
14 reasonable forms of positive identification other than a credit card,
15 including, without limitation:

16 (1) A driver's license;

17 (2) An identification card issued by the Department of Motor 18 Vehicles; ~~for~~

19 (3) A permanent resident card; or

20 (4) A consular identification card,
21 ➔ as a condition of accepting a check or draft.

22 (b) The business from requesting the customer to display a
23 credit card as an indicia of creditworthiness or financial 24 responsibility, if the only information recorded by the business
25 concerning the credit card is the type of credit card displayed, the 26 issuer of the card and the date the card expires.

27 (c) The business from requesting the customer to record the 28 account number of his or her credit card on the check or draft with 29 which payment on the credit card account is being made.

30 (d) The business from requesting the production of or recording
31 of the account number of a credit card as a condition of cashing a 32 check or draft if:

33 (1) The business has agreed with the issuer of the credit card
34 to cash the checks or drafts as a service to the cardholders of the 35 issuer;

36 (2) The issuer has agreed to guarantee any such check or 37 draft so cashed; and

38 (3) The cardholder has given actual, apparent or implied
39 authority for the use of his or her account number for this purpose.

40 2. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, a business
41 shall not, without the customer's consent, record a customer's 42 telephone number on the credit card sales slip as a condition of 43 accepting his or her credit card. This subsection does not:

44 (a) Prohibit the recordation of personal identifying information
45 required for a special purpose incidental to the use of the credit card,

1 such as the delivery, shipping, servicing or installation of the 2 purchased merchandise.

3 (b) Apply to a transaction in which the customer receives a cash
4 advance against his or her credit card or to a transaction involving 5 the use of preprinted spaces for personal identifying information that 6 the business accepting the credit card has a contractual obligation to 7 record in order to complete the transaction.

8 (c) Apply to a transaction in which the customer's purchase is 9 made by the use of a device that electronically authorizes the use of 10 the credit card and processes information relating thereto.

11 3. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise
12 requires:

13 (a) "Consular identification card" means an identification card
14 issued by a consulate of a foreign government, which consulate is 15 located within the State of Nevada.

16 (b) "Credit card" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 205.630.

17 (c) "Identification card issued by the Department of Motor
18 Vehicles" means an identification card of the type described in NRS
19 483.810 to 483.890, inclusive.

20 (d) "Permanent resident card" means a Permanent Resident
21 Card issued by the United States Citizenship and Immigration
22 Services of the Department of Homeland Security.

23 Sec. 3. NRS 97A.142 is hereby amended to read as follows:

24 97A.142 1. If a solicitor makes a firm offer of credit for a
25 credit card to a person by mail and receives an acceptance of that 26 offer which has a substantially different address listed for the person
27 than the address to which the solicitor sent the offer, the solicitor 28 shall verify that the person accepting the offer is the same person to 29 whom the offer was made before sending the person the credit card.

30 2. A solicitor shall be deemed to have verified the address of a
31 person pursuant to subsection 1 if the solicitor:

32 (a) Telephones the person at a telephone number appearing in a
33 publicly available directory or database as the telephone number of 34 the person to whom the solicitation was made and the person
35 acknowledges his or her acceptance of the solicitation;

36 (b) Receives from the person accepting the offer of credit proof
37 of identity in the form of an identification document, including,
38 without limitation, a driver's license, ~~or~~ passport ~~or~~ or permanent 39 resident card, which confirms that the person accepting the 40 solicitation is the person to whom the solicitation was made; or

41 (c) Uses any other commercially reasonable means to confirm 42 that the person accepting the solicitation is the person to whom the 43 solicitation was made, including, without limitation, any means
44 adopted in federal regulations.

45 3. For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Firm offer of credit" has the meaning ascribed to it in U.S.C. § 1681a(l).

(b) "Permanent resident card" means a Permanent Resident Card issued by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services of the Department of Homeland Security.

(c) "Solicitor" means a person who makes a firm offer of credit for a credit card by mail solicitation, but does not include an issuer or other creditor when that issuer or creditor relies on an independent third party to provide the solicitation services.

Sec. 4. NRS 125D.180 is hereby amended to read as follows:

125D.180 1. In determining whether there is a credible risk of abduction of a child, the court shall consider any evidence that the petitioner or respondent:

(a) Has previously abducted or attempted to abduct the child;

(b) Has threatened to abduct the child;

(c) Has recently engaged in activities that may indicate a planned abduction, including:

(1) Abandoning employment;

(2) Selling a primary residence;

(3) Terminating a lease;

(4) Closing bank or other financial management accounts, liquidating assets, hiding or destroying financial documents, or conducting any unusual financial activities;

(5) Applying for a passport or visa or obtaining travel documents for the respondent, a family member or the child; or

(6) Seeking to obtain the child's birth certificate or school or medical records;

(d) Has engaged in domestic violence, stalking, or child abuse or neglect;

(e) Has refused to follow a child custody determination;

(f) Lacks strong familial, financial, emotional or cultural ties to the State or the United States;

(g) Has strong familial, financial, emotional or cultural ties to another state or country;

(h) Is likely to take the child to a country that:

(1) Is not a party to the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction and does not provide for the extradition of an abducting parent or for the return of an abducted child;

(2) Is a party to the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction but:

(I) The Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction is not in force between the United States and that country;

(II) Is noncompliant according to the most recent compliance report issued by the United States Department of State; or

(III) Lacks legal mechanisms for immediately and effectively enforcing a return order pursuant to the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction;

(3) Poses a risk that the child's physical or emotional health or safety would be endangered in the country because of specific circumstances relating to the child or because of human rights violations committed against children;

(4) Has laws or practices that would:

(I) Enable the respondent, without due cause, to prevent the petitioner from contacting the child;

(II) Restrict the petitioner from freely traveling to or exiting from the country because of the petitioner's gender, nationality, marital status or religion; or

(III) Restrict the child's ability legally to leave the country after the child reaches the age of majority because of the child's gender, nationality or religion;

(5) Is included by the United States Department of State on a current list of state sponsors of terrorism;

(6) Does not have an official United States diplomatic presence in the country; or

(7) Is engaged in active military action or war, including a civil war, to which the child may be exposed;

(i) Is undergoing a change in immigration or citizenship status that would adversely affect the respondent's ability to remain in the United States legally;

(j) Has had an application for United States citizenship denied;

(k) Has forged or presented misleading or false evidence on government forms or supporting documents to obtain or attempt to obtain a passport, a visa, travel documents, a social security card, a driver's license, a permanent resident card or other government-issued identification card or has made a misrepresentation to the United States Government;

(l) Has used multiple names to attempt to mislead or defraud; or

(m) Has engaged in any other conduct the court considers relevant to the risk of abduction.

2. In the hearing on a petition pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, the court shall consider any evidence that the respondent believed in good faith that the respondent's conduct was necessary to avoid imminent harm to the child or respondent and any other evidence that may be relevant to whether the respondent may be permitted to remove or retain the child.

3. If the court finds during the hearing on the petition that the respondent's conduct is intended to avoid imminent harm to the child or respondent, the court shall not issue an abduction prevention order.

Sec. 5. NRS 159.044 is hereby amended to read as follows:

159.044 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 127.045, a proposed ward, a governmental agency, a nonprofit corporation or any interested person may petition the court for the appointment of a guardian.

2. To the extent the petitioner knows or reasonably may ascertain or obtain, the petition must include, without limitation:

(a) The name and address of the petitioner.

(b) The name, date of birth and current address of the proposed ward.

(c) A copy of one of the following forms of identification of the proposed ward which must be placed in the records relating to the guardianship proceeding and, except as otherwise provided in NRS 239.0115 or as otherwise required to carry out a specific statute, maintained in a confidential manner:

16 felony and, if so, information concerning the crime for which the 17 proposed guardian was convicted and whether the proposed
18 guardian was placed on probation or parole.

19 (j) A summary of the reasons why a guardian is needed and 20 recent documentation demonstrating the need for a guardianship. If 21 the proposed ward is an adult, the documentation must include,
22 without limitation:

23 (1) A certificate signed by a physician who is licensed to 24 practice medicine in this State or who is employed by the 25 Department of Veterans Affairs, a letter signed by any governmental
26 agency in this State which conducts investigations or a certificate
27 signed by any other person whom the court finds qualified to 28 execute a certificate, stating:

29 (I) The need for a guardian;

30 (II) Whether the proposed ward presents a danger to 31 himself or herself or others;

32 (III) Whether the proposed ward's attendance at a hearing
33 would be detrimental to the proposed ward;

34 (IV) Whether the proposed ward would comprehend the 35 reason for a hearing or contribute to the proceeding; and

36 (V) Whether the proposed ward is capable of living
37 independently with or without assistance; and

38 (2) If the proposed ward is determined to have the limited
39 capacity to consent to the appointment of a special guardian, a 40 written consent to the appointment of a special guardian from the 41 ward.

42 (k) Whether the appointment of a general or a special guardian
43 is sought.

44 (l) A general description and the probable value of the property
45 of the proposed ward and any income to which the proposed ward is

1 or will be entitled, if the petition is for the appointment of a
2 guardian of the estate or a special guardian. If any money is paid or 3 is payable to the proposed ward by the United States through the 4 Department of Veterans Affairs, the petition must so state.

5 (m) The name and address of any person or care provider having 6 the care, custody or control of the proposed ward.

7 (n) If the petitioner is not the spouse or natural child of the 8 proposed ward, a declaration explaining the relationship of the 9 petitioner to the proposed ward or to the proposed ward's family or 10 friends, if any, and the interest, if any, of the petitioner in the 11 appointment.

12 (o) Requests for any of the specific powers set forth in NRS
13 159.117 to 159.175, inclusive, necessary to enable the guardian to 14 carry out the duties of the guardianship.

15 (p) If the guardianship is sought as the result of an investigation
16 of a report of abuse, neglect, exploitation, isolation or abandonment
17 of the proposed ward, whether the referral was from a law
18 enforcement agency or a state or county agency.

19 (q) Whether the proposed ward or the proposed guardian is a
20 party to any pending criminal or civil litigation.

21 (r) Whether the guardianship is sought for the purpose of 22 initiating litigation.

23 (s) Whether the proposed ward has executed a durable power of 24 attorney for health care, a durable power of attorney for financial 25 matters or a written nomination of guardian and, if so, who the 26 named agents are for each document.

27 (t) Whether the proposed guardian has filed for or received
28 protection under the federal bankruptcy laws within the immediately
29 preceding 7 years.

30 3. Before the court makes a finding pursuant to NRS 159.054,
31 a petitioner seeking a guardian for a proposed adult ward must 32 provide the court with an assessment of the needs of the proposed 33 adult ward completed by a licensed physician which identifies the 34 limitations of capacity of the proposed adult ward and how such 35 limitations affect the ability of the proposed adult ward to maintain
36 his or her safety and basic needs. The court may prescribe the form
37 in which the assessment of the needs of the proposed adult ward
38 must be filed.

39 Sec. 6. NRS 159.2025 is hereby amended to read as follows:

40 159.2025 If a guardian has been appointed in another state and 41 a petition for the appointment of a guardian is not pending in this 42 State, the guardian appointed in the other state, after giving notice to 43 the appointing court of an intent to register and the reason for 44 registration, may register the guardianship order in this State by

1 filing as a foreign judgment in a court, in any appropriate county of 2 this State:

3 1. Certified copies of the order and letters of office; and

4 2. A copy of the guardian's driver's license, passport ,
5 permanent resident card or other valid photo identification card in a 6 sealed envelope.
