

Assembly Bill No. 258—Assemblymen Frierson, Carlton, Monroe-Moreno, Benitez-Thompson, Carrillo; Araujo, Bilbray-Axelrod, Brooks, Bustamante Adams, Cohen, Daly, Diaz, Flores, Fumo, Jauregui, Joiner, Miller, Neal, Ohrenschall, Spiegel, Sprinkle, Swank, Watkins and Yeager

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to the Nevada Commission for Women; revising provisions governing the members, officers and powers of the Commission; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law creates the Nevada Commission for Women and provides for the membership, officers, powers and duties of the Commission. (Chapter 233I of NRS) Section 1 of this bill declares the legislative intent for the creation of the Commission as the advancement of women toward full equality in all areas.

Existing law requires that the members appointed to the Commission reflect varied political philosophies regarding issues of concern to women and that not more than five members of the Commission be from the same political party. (NRS 233I.020) Section 1 expands the qualifications for membership to require that, insofar as practicable, the membership of the Commission reflect the diversity of this State.

Under existing law, members of the Commission serve terms of 3 years and are eligible for reappointment to an additional consecutive term. (NRS 233I.030) The Governor is required under existing law to designate a Chair and Vice Chair of the Commission. The term of the Chair, Vice Chair and any other officer of the Commission is 1 year. (NRS 233I.020) Section 1 authorizes the Governor to reappoint a Chair, Vice Chair or other officer of the Commission to an additional term of 1 year.

Existing law: (1) requires the Commission to study the changing roles of women in society and recommend proposed legislation; and (2) authorizes the Commission to collect and disseminate information on activities, programs and essential services available to women in this State. (NRS 233I.060) Section 2 of this bill grants the Commission additional powers toward its declared mission of advancing women toward full equality in all areas.

Existing law authorizes the Commission to engage the services of volunteers and consultants without compensation. (NRS 233I.080) Under existing law, the Commission is authorized to apply for and receive gifts, grants, contributions and other money from public and private sources to be used for the costs of carrying out its powers and duties. (NRS 233I.090) Section 3 of this bill authorizes the Commission to pay for the services of consultants as independent contractors for specific projects from the money received by the Commission.
