AN ACT relating to victims of crime; removing the prohibition on awarding compensation to certain victims of crime who do not meet certain citizenship or residency requirements; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

1 Legislative Counsel's Digest:

2 Existing law authorizes the State Board of Examiners to award compensation to certain
3 victims of crime. (NRS 217.160, 217.180) Existing law prohibits compensation from being 4 awarded to a victim who was not a citizen or lawful resident of the United States at the time of 5 the crime or who is unable to provide proof of such citizenship or lawful residency. (NRS 217.220)

6 Section 2 of this bill removes that prohibition. Section H 1.3 of this bill revises the 7 definition of “resident” for the purposes of provisions relating to the compensation of victims
8 of crime to remove the requirement that a person must be a citizen or lawful resident of the 9 United States in order to be a resident.

10 Under existing law, a victim of a crime who is a resident of this State is eligible for 11 compensation in certain circumstances when the crime occurs outside this State, 12 including when it is an act of international terrorism which occurred outside the United 13 States. (18 U.S.C. § 2331; NRS 217.035, 217.070, 217.102) Sections 1, 1.5 and 1.7 of this 14 bill authorize compensation to be paid to a victim of a crime committed in this State even 15 if the victim was not a resident of this State.
