Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law authorizes a court to place a child in a public or private institution or agency authorized to care for children. (NRS 62E.110) Such institutions include juvenile detention facilities, foster homes, child care facilities and mental health facilities. (NRS 62B.200, 63.400, 432A.1757, 432B.550, 433B.310) Existing law also provides for the licensure and regulation of foster care agencies, which are business entities that recruit and enter into contracts with foster homes to assist an agency which provides child welfare services and juvenile courts in the placement of children in foster homes. (NRS 424.0135, 424.093-424.270) Additionally, existing law designates as the agency which provides child welfare services: (1) in a county whose population is less than 100,000, the Division of Child and Family Services of the Department of Health and Human Services; and (2) in a county whose population is 100,000 or more, the agency of the county which provides or arranges for necessary child welfare services. (NRS 432B.030)

Sections 3, 4, 23, 28, 29, 37, 41 and 46 of this bill require each of those institutions and agencies to treat a child for whom the institution or agency is responsible ~~[as having]~~ in accordance with the child's gender with which the child identifies, regardless of the biological sex of the child, gender identity or expression.

Existing law requires an employee of such an institution or agency to receive certain training. (NRS 62B.250, 63.190, 424.0365, 424.135, 432A.177, 432B.195, 433B.175) Sections 4, 6, 10, 24, 29, 31, 38, 43 and 47 of this bill require ~~each employee of such an institution or agency who comes into direct contact with children to receive, within 30 days after being hired, at least 2 hours of~~ that training to: (1) be approved by the licensing authority or the Division; and (2) include instruction on working with lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and questioning children.

Existing law: (1) establishes certain rights for foster children; (2) requires a provider of foster care to take certain measures to notify a foster child of those rights; and (3) authorizes a provider of foster care to impose reasonable restrictions on the time, place and manner in which a foster child may exercise those rights. (NRS 432.525-432.540) Sections 17-21 of this bill make these provisions applicable to all children who are in the custody of an agency which provides child welfare services, other than children placed in a mental health facility. Sections 23, 26, 40 and 45 of this bill provide certain rights to children who are committed by a court to a public or private institution or agency, including a youth detention facility operated by the State and a treatment facility or other facility operated by the Division to provide mental health care and treatment. Sections 20, 33, 36, 40 and 45 also: (1) require such an institution or agency to take certain measures to notify a child of those rights; and (2) authorize such an institution or agency to impose reasonable restrictions on the time, place and manner in which a child may exercise those rights. Sections 23, 37, 41 and 46 require the Division to prescribe regulations that a court must consider before placing a child in a child care facility, a facility for the detention of children or a mental health or treatment facility. Section 28 of this bill requires the Division to adopt protocols that an agency which provides child welfare services must follow when placing a child in an out-of-home placement.

Section 14 of this bill requires the Division to establish a procedure for filing and resolving a grievance concerning a placement, a foster care agency, an agency which provides child welfare services or an agency or institution to which a child is committed by a court.

Existing law requires a provider of foster care to provide a foster child with a written copy of his or her rights. (NRS 432.540) Section 20 of this bill requires a provider of foster care to provide a foster child with a written summary of those rights.
