AN ACT relating to wages; authorizing a domestic service employee who resides in the household where he or she works and his or her employer to enter into a written agreement to exclude from the employee's wages certain specified periods for meals, sleep and other free time; authorizing such an agreement to be used to establish the number of hours worked by the employee during a pay period; revising provisions relating to the payment of certain compensation for overtime to a domestic service employee who resides in the household where he or she works; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law requires an employer to pay compensation to an employee for each hour the 2 employee works. (NRS 608.016) Existing federal regulations allow a domestic service 3 employee who resides in the household where he or she works and his or her employer to 4 agree to exclude from the employee's wages certain periods of complete freedom from all 5 duties. (29 C.F.R. § 552.102) Section 1 of this bill enacts provisions based on federal 6 regulations to provide that a domestic service employee who resides in the household where 7 he or she works and his or her employer may agree to exclude from the employee's wages
8 certain periods for meals, sleep and other periods of complete freedom from all duties. Under 9 section 1, if a period excluded from the employee's wages is interrupted by a call to duty by 10 the employer, the interruption must be counted as hours worked for which compensation must 11 be paid.

12 Existing law requires an employer to pay 1 1/2 times certain employee's regular 13 wage rates for certain periods of overtime. (NRS 608.018) Under existing law, domestic 14 service employees who reside in the household where they work are exempt from this 15 requirement. (NRS 608.018, 608.250) Section 2.5 of this bill provides that such an 16 employee is exempt from the requirement to pay overtime compensation only if the 17 employee and his or her employer have agreed in writing to exclude the employee from 18 the requirement.
