obtained in certain crimes; providing for the distribution of forfeited property and proceeds from the sale of such property; requiring the reporting of certain information relating to the forfeiture of property; revising provisions disposition of property and proceeds; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides for the seizure, forfeiture and disposition of certain property and proceeds attributable to the commission of certain crimes. (NRS 179.1156-179.121) Existing law separately provides for the seizure, forfeiture and disposition of property and proceeds attributable to any technological crime which is punishable as a felony. (NRS 179.1211-179.1235) Finally, existing law provides for the seizure, forfeiture and disposition of property and proceeds attributable to racketeering crimes. (NRS 207.350-207.520) Section 51 of this bill repeals the existing statutory scheme for the seizure, forfeiture and disposition of property and proceeds.

Sections 2-27 of this bill enact a new statutory scheme, under the jurisdiction of the courts presiding over criminal proceedings, governing the seizure, forfeiture and disposition of property and proceeds attributable to certain crimes. Section 9

* S B 3 5 8 *

provides that property is subject to forfeiture only if the underlying crime provides for such forfeiture, and there is: (1) proof of a criminal conviction; (2) a plea agreement; or (3) an agreement by the parties. Section 9 also requires the State to establish that seized property is forfeitable by clear and convincing evidence. Sections 13 and 14 provide for the seizure of property for which forfeiture is sought by a court order, or without a court order if: (1) the seizure is pursuant to a lawful arrest; (2) the property has been the subject of a prior judgment in the favor of the State; or (3) there is probable cause to believe that a delay would result in the removal or destruction of the property.

Sections 18 and 19 authorize a person to: (1) file a petition for the remission or mitigation of a forfeiture; and (2) seek a pretrial hearing to determine the validity of the seizure. Section 24 provides that the property of an innocent owner may not be forfeited and sets forth a process for determining whether a person is an innocent owner. Section 25 provides that any forfeited currency or property auction proceeds must only: (1) be used to pay all outstanding recorded liens on the property; (2) be used to pay reasonable expenses, except personnel costs; and (3) be deposited, if any funds remain, in the State Permanent School Fund.

Existing law requires: (1) each law enforcement agency to report certain information about each individual seizure and forfeiture completed by the agency during the preceding year; and (2) the Office of the Attorney General to post on its Internet website the reports submitted by law enforcement agencies and an aggregate report of all forfeitures in this State. (NRS 179.1205) Section 29 of this bill requires each law enforcement agency to report certain additional details in the annual report relating to the seizure, forfeiture and disposition of property. Section 29 also requires the Office of the Attorney General to post the reports on its Internet website in a format that provides for easy use and analysis of the information by other agencies and persons, such as an electronic spreadsheet. Sections 28-49 of this bill revise existing law authorizing the forfeiture of property attributable to certain crimes to incorporate references to the new procedures for forfeiture pursuant to sections 2-27.

41 Sec. 23. 1. A bona fide security interest in any property is 42 not subject to forfeiture unless the person claiming a security
