Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law prohibits an employer, employment agency, labor organization or joint labor-management committee from discriminating against any person with respect to employment or membership, as applicable, on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, disability or national origin. (NRS 613.330) Existing law also requires the Nevada Equal Rights Commission to accept certain complaints alleging unlawful discriminatory practices and, if the Commission determines that an unlawful practice has occurred, order: (1) the person engaging in the practice to cease and desist; and (2) for a case involving an unlawful employment practice, the restoration of all benefits and rights to which the aggrieved person is entitled. (NRS 233.157, 233.160, 233.170)

Section 1.5 of this bill revises provisions governing the filing of complaints alleging a practice of unlawful discrimination in compensation to require that the complaint be filed within 300 days after any date on which: (1) a decision or practice resulting in discriminatory compensation is adopted; (2) a person becomes subject to such a decision or practice; or (3) a person is affected by an application of such a decision or practice. Section 1.5 also requires the Commission to notify each party to a complaint of the period of time that a person may apply to a district court for relief. Sections 2 and 2.5 of this bill revise the powers of the Commission to order remedies for unlawful employment practices. Section 2 authorizes the Commission to: (1) award back pay for a period beginning 2 years before the date of the filing of a complaint regarding an unlawful employment practice and ending on the date the Commission issues an order regarding the complaint; (2) award costs and reasonable attorney's fees in cases involving an unlawful employment practice; (3) order payment of compensatory damages or, if the employer acted with malice or reckless indifference, punitive damages in cases involving an unlawful employment practice relating to discrimination on the basis of sex; and (4) order a civil penalty, in increasing amounts, for an unlawful employment practice that it determines is willful based on the number of such practices the person has committed in the previous 5 years. Section 1 of this bill requires, with limited exception, that any penalty or fine imposed by the Commission for certain unlawful discriminatory practices be deposited in the State General Fund and authorizes the Commission to present a claim for recommendation to the Interim Finance Committee if money is required to pay certain costs. Section 1 requires that any civil penalty imposed by the Commission for willful unlawful employment practices be deposited in the Nevada Equal Rights Commission Gift Fund and used to prevent unlawful employment practices through enforcement, outreach and training.

Section 12 of this bill requires the Commission, if it does not conclude that an unfair employment practice has occurred, to issue a letter to the person who filed the complaint concerning an unfair employment practice. This letter must notify the person of his or her right to apply to the district court for an order relating to the alleged unfair employment practice and any potential punitive damages owed to the person. Section 13 of this bill provides that a person may apply to a district court for relief pursuant to section 12 up to 180 days after the date of issuance of the letter described in section 12, in addition to the existing authority to apply to a district court for relief up to 180 days after the date of the alleged act.

This bill also enacts several provisions contained in the federal Paycheck Fairness Act, which was most recently introduced in the United States Senate on March 25, 2015, but has not been enacted to date. (S. 862 (114th)) Specifically, section 3 of this bill prohibits an employer, employment agency or labor organization from discriminating against any person with respect to employment or membership, as applicable, for inquiring about, discussing or disclosing information about wages unless the person has access to information about the wages of other persons as part of his or her essential job functions and discloses the information to a person who does not have access to that information. Under section 11 of this bill, any person injured by such an unlawful employment practice may file a complaint with the Commission. Section 7 of this bill provides that it is an unlawful employment practice to use a qualification which is based upon or derived from a difference on the basis of sex or a qualification that an employer, employment agency, labor organization or joint labor-management committee has refused to change after being presented by an affected person with an alternative practice that would serve the same purpose in a manner that is less discriminatory on the basis of sex.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 233 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, all penalties and fines imposed by the Commission pursuant to NRS 233.170 and 233.210 must be deposited with the State Treasurer for credit to the State General Fund.

2. If the money collected from the imposition of any penalty and fine is deposited in the State General Fund pursuant to subsection 1, the Commission may present a claim to the State Board of Examiners for recommendation to the Interim Finance Committee if money is required to pay attorney's fees or the costs of an investigation, or both.

3. A civil penalty imposed by the Commission pursuant to subparagraph (5) of paragraph (b) of subsection 3 of NRS 233.170 must be deposited in the Nevada Equal Rights Commission Gift Fund created by NRS 233.155. The money described in this subsection must be accounted for separately in the Fund and used only for the purpose of preventing unlawful employment practices in this State through enforcement of this chapter, outreach and training.

Sec. 1.5. NRS 233.160 is hereby amended to read as follows:
233.160 1. A complaint which alleges unlawful discriminatory practices in:

(a) Housing must be filed with the Commission not later than 1 year after the date of the occurrence of the alleged practice or the date on which the practice terminated.

(b) Employment or public accommodations must be filed with the Commission not later than 300 days after the date of the occurrence of the alleged practice.

➔ A complaint is timely if it is filed with an appropriate federal agency within that period. A complainant shall not file a complaint with the Commission if any other state or federal administrative body or officer which has comparable jurisdiction to adjudicate

1 complaints of discriminatory practices has made a decision upon a 2 complaint based upon the same facts and legal theory.

3 2. The complainant shall specify in the complaint the alleged 4 unlawful practice and sign it under oath.

5 3. The Commission shall send to the party against whom an 6 unlawful discriminatory practice is alleged:

7 (a) A copy of the complaint;

8 (b) An explanation of the rights which are available to that 9 party; and

10 (c) A copy of the Commission's procedures.

11 4. The Commission shall notify each party to the complaint of 12 the limitation on the period of time that a person may apply to the 13 district court for relief pursuant to NRS 613.430.

14 5. For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection 1, an 24 compensation that is affected by the decision or practice.

25 Sec. 2. NRS 233.170 is hereby amended to read as follows:

26 233.170 1. When a complaint is filed whose allegations if 27 true would support a finding of unlawful practice, the Commission 28 shall determine whether to hold an informal meeting to attempt a 29 settlement of the dispute in accordance with the regulations adopted 30 pursuant to NRS 233.157. If the Commission determines to hold an 31 informal meeting, the Administrator may, to prepare for the 32 meeting, request from each party any information which is 33 reasonably relevant to the complaint. No further action may be taken 34 if the parties agree to a settlement.

35 2. If an agreement is not reached at the informal meeting, the 36 Administrator shall determine whether to conduct an investigation
37 into the alleged unlawful practice in accordance with the regulations 38 adopted pursuant to NRS 233.157. After the investigation, if the 39 Administrator determines that an unlawful practice has occurred, 40 the Administrator shall attempt to mediate between or reconcile the 41 parties. The party against whom a complaint was filed may agree to 42 cease the unlawful practice. If an agreement is reached, no further 43 action may be taken by the complainant or by the Commission.

44 3. If the attempts at mediation or conciliation fail, the 45 Commission may hold a public hearing on the matter. After the

1 hearing, if the Commission determines that an unlawful practice has 2 occurred, it may:

3 (a) Serve a copy of its findings of fact within 10 calendar days
4 upon any person found to have engaged in the unlawful practice; 5 and

6 (b) Order the person to:

7 (1) Cease and desist from the unlawful practice.

8 (2) In cases involving an unlawful employment practice, 9 restore all benefits and rights to which the aggrieved person is 10 entitled, including, but not limited to, rehiring, back pay for a period 11 ~~not to exceed 2 years after the date of the most recent unlawful~~ 12 ~~practice,~~ described in subsection 4, annual leave time, sick leave 13 time or pay, other fringe benefits and seniority, with interest thereon 14 from the date of the Commission's decision at a rate equal to the 15 prime rate at the largest bank in Nevada, as ascertained by the 16 Commissioner of Financial Institutions, on January 1 or July 1, as 17 the case may be, immediately preceding the date of the 18 Commission's decision, plus 2 percent. The rate of interest must be 19 adjusted accordingly on each January 1 and July 1 thereafter until 20 the judgment is satisfied.

21 (3) In cases involving an unlawful employment practice,
22 pay the costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the 23 aggrieved person to pursue the claim.

24 (4) In cases involving an unlawful employment practice

26 determined to be appropriate by the Commission as compensatory
27 damages which, upon submission of proof by the aggrieved party, 28 may include, without limitation, compensation that would have 29 been earned in the absence of discrimination for overtime, shift
30 differential, commissions, tips, cost of living adjustments, merit 31 increases or promotions, or for other fringe benefits, including,
32 without limitation, vacation pay, pension or retirement benefits,
33 stock options or bonus plans, contributions to a savings plan,
34 profit sharing or benefits for medical or life insurance.

35 (5) In cases involving an unlawful employment practice
36 that the Commission determines was willful, pay a civil penalty of:

37 (I) For the first unlawful employment practice that the 38 person has engaged in during the immediately preceding 5 years 39 which the Commission determines was willful, not more than 40 $10,000.

41 (II) For the second unlawful employment practice that 42 the person has engaged in during the immediately preceding 5
43 years which the Commission determines was willful, not more 44 than $15,000.

1 (III) For the third and any subsequent unlawful 2 employment practice that the person has engaged in during the 3 immediately preceding 5 years which the Commission determines 4 was willful, not more than $25,000.

5 4. For the purposes of subparagraph (2) of paragraph (b) of 6 subsection 3, the period for back pay must not exceed a period 7 beginning 2 years before the date on which the complaint was 8 filed and ending on the date the Commission issues an order 9 pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 3 addressing all unlawful 10 practices which occur during that period and which are similar or 11 related to an unlawful practice in the complaint.

12 5. The Commission shall adopt regulations setting forth the 13 manner in which the Commission will determine whether an 14 unlawful employment practice was willful.

15 6. The order of the Commission is a final decision in a 16 contested case for the purpose of judicial review. If the person fails 17 to comply with the Commission's order, the Commission shall 18 apply to the district court for an order compelling such compliance, 19 but failure or delay on the part of the Commission does not 20 prejudice the right of an aggrieved party to judicial review. The 21 court shall issue the order unless it finds that the Commission's 22 findings or order are not supported by substantial evidence or are 23 otherwise arbitrary or capricious. If the court upholds the 24 Commission's order and finds that the person has violated the order 25 by failing to cease and desist from the unlawful practice or to make 26 the payment ordered, the court ~~shall~~:

27 (a) Shall award the aggrieved party actual damages for any 28 economic loss ; and ~~no more.~~

29 ~~—5.—~~ (b) May, if the court determines that the employer's act or

33 7. After the Commission has held a public hearing and 34 rendered a decision, the complainant is barred from proceeding on 20 committee subject to NRS 613.310 to 613.435, inclusive, and 21 section 3 of this act to grant preferential treatment to any person or 22 to any group because of the race, color, religion, sex, sexual 23 orientation, gender identity or expression, age, disability or national 24 origin of the individual or group on account of an imbalance which 25 exists with respect to the total number or percentage of persons of 26 any race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or 27 expression, age, disability or national origin employed by any 28 employer, referred or classified for employment by any employment 29 agency or labor organization, admitted to membership or classified
