The Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) has reviewed BDR 14-600, which makes proposed revisions to Chapter 171 of NRS requiring all law enforcement agencies and law enforcement officers to make an electronic recording of a custodial interrogation conducted in a place of detention of a person who is suspected of committing homicide as described in NRS 200.010 to 200.260, inclusive, or sexual assault as defined in NRS 300.366.

The NDOC Inspector General's Office currently records inmates as required by regulation and circumstance.

The NDOC has determined that there is not a fiscal impact.
