Explanation

(Use Additional Sheets of Attachments, if required)

BDR 43-968, Sections 1(3) and Section 2 (2) redact language that allows law enforcement to issue a citation to individuals for not wearing their seatbelts and/or child restraints as a secondary offense. Redacting this language would make a seatbelt violation a primary offense.

While seatbelt violations are addressed in the driver's handbook, the type of offense is not indicated. Therefore, no revisions are required to be made to the handbook or the written test questions.

Implementation date is July 1, 2017
