BDR 38-286 (AB346) requiring small child care centers to use the Central Repository's Civil Name Check service to conduct name-based search of records of criminal history. If this bill is enacted as introduced, the small child care centers would be required to maintain a secure area for a stand alone terminal that has specific technical requirements to allow access to criminal history, in addition, they would be subject to audits and site security checks performed by the GSD Compliance Unit. GSD does not have a way to estimate the number of small child care centers that would be required to participate in the service to determine a definitive cost for the increase to its workload. GSD requests to return to the Nevada Legislature's Interim Finance Committee in the 2017-2019 biennium should workload increases necessitate additional staffing.
