Explanation

(Use Additional Sheets of Attachments, if required)

This bill creates a process of judicial review of determinations made by the Board upon matters brought before the Board by persons particularly interested in challenging laws given to the Board by the Legislature, and such judicial processes are new,unprecedented, and (per the terms of the bill) unavoidable. The Board can anticipate it may need to defend the laws assigned to the Board by the Legislature against such litigation. Since the Board is funded solely by licensing fees, the costs of all such litigation would directly impact the Board's finances. At this time, the amount of the fiscal impact cannot be ascertained.
