

THE THIRTIETH DAY

CARSON CITY (Tuesday), March 7, 2017

Senate called to order at 11:08 a.m.

President Hutchison presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Rabbi Evon J. Yakar.

Good morning, to all of you and thank you for the honor of being here, today. Even more, I express my gratitude to you for your efforts on behalf of the citizens of the State of Nevada.

On Sunday, Jews around the world will mark the holiday of Purim, celebrating the heroine Esther from the biblical narrative bearing her name. It is a tale rivaling some of the greatest stories. It is full of good versus evil, life and death, and the triumph of the spirit. Each year, when we recount this story and read the Scroll of Esther, we are reminded of one character who does not appear; God is absent throughout the entirety of the account. As Esther garners the courage to stand up for her identity as a Jew, to save her people, she does so drawing on her own strength, sharing the truth and exposing the reality around her. It is a moment in our history when we recognize the imperative to seek the truth around us and to stand up for our beliefs, our values and life.

While God, at least by name, does not appear in the Book of Esther, it is the Divine acting through each of us that helps us discover the truth and to know the realities of our lives. We ask that the same power that Esther held may be found in each of us, may it be found in each of you as you do this sacred work of governance. As this time of year in the Jewish calendar draws near, may this Legislative Body honor the power invested in it by seeking truth, by standing up for beliefs and values that ensure a healthy, vibrant and sound tomorrow for all the citizens of the State of Nevada and our Nation.

We pray: HaMakom—May the One Who is Ever Present grant each of us the power to discern truth and to honor it; may we know the strength implanted within us all to stand for our beliefs and our values.

AMEN.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

By previous order of the Senate, the reading of the Journal is dispensed with, and the President and Secretary are authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.
