Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires certain persons who, in their professional or occupational capacity, know or have reasonable cause to believe that a child has been abused or neglected to report the abuse or neglect to an agency which provides child welfare services or a law enforcement agency. (NRS 432B.220) Section 12 of this bill requires any such person who is required to report the abuse or neglect of a child and who, in his or her professional or occupational capacity, knows or has reasonable cause to believe that a child is a commercially sexually exploited child, to report the commercial sexual exploitation to an agency which provides child welfare services as soon as reasonably practicable but not later than 24 hours after the person knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the child is a commercially sexually exploited child. Section 12 provides that any person who

* A B 1 5 1 R 1 *

12 knowingly and willfully violates such a requirement is guilty of a misdemeanor for 13 the first violation and a gross misdemeanor for each subsequent violation. Section 14 12 also requires any person who knows or has reasonable cause to believe that a 15 child is a commercially sexually exploited child to immediately contact a law 16 enforcement agency if an alleged perpetrator of the commercial sexual exploitation
17 is or is alleged to be present with the child, or the child is otherwise in imminent 18 danger to report the commercial sexual exploitation of the child.

19 The Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct generally prohibit an attorney from 20 revealing information relating to the representation of a client unless the client 21 consents to the disclosure or the disclosure is impliedly authorized to carry out the 22 representation. However, the Rules require an attorney to reveal such information 23 to the extent the attorney reasonably believes necessary to prevent a criminal act 24 that is likely to result in reasonably certain death or substantial bodily harm.
25 Additionally, the Rules authorize an attorney to reveal such information in certain 26 other circumstances. (RPC 1.6) The Restatement (Third) of the Law Governing 27 Lawyers states that serious bodily harm includes the consequences of child sexual 28 abuse. (Restatement (Third) of the Law Governing Lawyers § 66 cmt. c (2000))
29 Section 12.5 of this bill: (1) prohibits an attorney from making a report pursuant to 30 section 12 when prohibited by the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct; and (2) 31 requires an attorney to make a report pursuant to section 12 when necessary to 32 prevent further sex trafficking or sexual abuse of a child and in other circumstances
33 when such reporting is authorized by the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct.

34 Section 13 of this bill requires an agency which provides child welfare 35 services, upon receiving a report concerning the commercial sexual exploitation of 36 a child, to: (1) conduct an initial screening; and (2) report the commercial sexual 37 exploitation to the appropriate law enforcement agency. Section 13 additionally 38 authorizes such an agency to: (1) if the child resides in another jurisdiction, initiate 39 contact with an agency which provides child welfare services in that jurisdiction;
40 and (2) conduct an assessment relating to abuse or neglect of the child. Section 13
41 further sets forth the actions that an agency which provides child welfare services is 42 authorized to take if no abuse or neglect of the child is identified.

43 Section 14 of this bill provides that information maintained pursuant to 44 sections 2-15 of this bill by an agency which provides child welfare services is 45 confidential and any person who willfully releases or disseminates such 46 information, except in certain authorized circumstances, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

47 Section 15 of this bill establishes provisions relating to the authorized release 48 of information maintained pursuant to sections 2-15 by an agency which provides 49 child welfare services. Section 15 generally provides that any person to whom such 50 information is provided who further disseminates the information or makes the 51 information public is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. Section 15 also: (1) authorizes 52 an agency which provides child welfare services to charge a fee for processing 53 costs necessary to prepare such information for authorized release; and (2) requires 54 an agency which provides child welfare services to adopt rules, policies or 55 regulations to carry out the provisions of law relating to the authorized release of 56 such information.

57 Existing law provides that if a person reports to a law enforcement agency that 58 another person has committed a violent or sexual offense against a child, and the 59 violent or sexual offense would constitute abuse or neglect of a child, the report 60 shall be deemed to be a report of the abuse or neglect of the child that is required by 61 law. (NRS 202.894) Section 16 of this bill provides that if the sexual or violent 62 offense would constitute the commercial sexual exploitation of a child, the report 63 shall be deemed to be a report of the commercial sexual exploitation of a child that 64 is required by section 12.

65 Sections 18 and 19 of this bill make certain provisions of law that apply to the 66 duty of certain professionals to report the abuse or neglect of a child also apply to

* A B 1 5 1 R 1 *

67 the duty of such professionals to report the commercial sexual exploitation of a 68 child pursuant to section 12.
