Commission. Section 8 of this bill requires the Inspector General to administer provisions of law governing the Office. Section 9 of this bill authorizes the Inspector General, within the limits of available money, to employ such persons in the classified service of the State as he or she deems necessary to provide an appropriate staff for the Office and to enter into contracts with certain professionals for professional services related to the functions of the Office.

Section 10 of this bill requires the Inspector General to submit a report to the Governor and the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, on at least a quarterly basis or at the Governor's request, setting forth any findings, conclusions or recommendations relating to an audit, investigation, inspection or review conducted by the Inspector General. Sections 11 and 34 of this bill transfer from the Division of Internal Audits to the Inspector General the requirement to establish a telephone number to receive information relating to abuse, fraud and waste with respect to the use of public money by state agencies and local governments. Section 12 of this bill: (1) requires a state agency or local government, upon request by the Inspector General, to cooperate with and provide assistance to the Inspector General in carrying out his or her duties; and (2) makes any person who willfully prevents, impairs or prohibits the performance of the duties of the Inspector General guilty of a category E felony. Section 13 of this bill authorizes the Inspector General to issue subpoenas. Sections 11, 14 and 24 of this bill provide for the confidentiality of: (1) any record maintained by the Inspector General during an investigation; and (2) the identity of any whistleblower. Otherwise, section 14 requires a report of the Inspector General to be made available to the public. Section 15 of this bill requires the Legislative Auditor to review a representative sample of the audits, investigations and reviews conducted by the Office for conformance with professional standards at least once every 3 years. Section 16 of this bill creates the Nevada Inspector General's Fund as a special revenue fund without reversion to the State General Fund.

Section 17 of this bill makes it a category E felony to retaliate against certain persons who file a lawful complaint concerning fraud, waste or abuse within a state agency or local government.

Existing law provides that a person commits a gross misdemeanor if he or she uses any threat, force or violence to prevent an executive or administrative officer from performing his or her duties. (NRS 197.090) Section 21 of this bill makes it a category E felony for a person to use any threat, force or violence to prevent the Inspector General or an employee of the Nevada Office of the Inspector General from performing his or her duties.

Sections 21 and 22 of this bill provide that the increased penalty for assault or battery of an officer applies to an assault or battery of the Inspector General or an employee of the Nevada Office of the Inspector General. (NRS 200.471, 200.481)

Section 25 of this bill makes the Inspector General and investigators employed by the Office of the Inspector General category II peace officers.

Existing law requires the head of each state agency to periodically review and report to the Director of the Office of Finance whether the agency's system of internal accounting and administrative control is in compliance with the uniform system of internal accounting and administrative control adopted by the Director for state agencies. Existing law further requires the Director to submit a report on the status of internal accounting and administrative controls in state agencies to certain persons. (NRS 353A.025) Sections 18 and 19 of this bill require the Director to provide this report to the Inspector General.

Section 32 of this bill requires the Governor to appoint the Inspector General on or before December 1, 2019.

Sections 27-29 of this bill make appropriations to provide a payment of $10,000 to certain public employees. Section 26 of this bill makes an appropriation to provide for the hiring of additional school police officers. Section 31 of this bill

64 makes an appropriation to hire such persons as are needed to staff the Office of the 65 Inspector General.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Title 31 of NRS is hereby amended by adding
2 thereto a new chapter to consist of the provisions set forth as
3 sections 2 to 17, inclusive, of this act.

4 Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise
5 requires, the words and terms defined in sections 3 to 6, inclusive,
6 of this act have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

4. The Inspector General must have the demonstrated ability to administer a major public agency in the field of auditing, investigations, inspections or performance reviews of programs of governmental agencies, including, without limitation:

(a) Experience in accounting, auditing, financial analysis, law, management analysis, public administration, investigations, criminal justice administration or any other closely related field;

(b) Certification as a Certified Fraud Examiner by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, or its successor organization, and as a Certified Inspector General by the Association of Inspectors General, or its successor organization, not later than 18 months after appointment as the Inspector General; and

(c) Continued status as a Certified Inspector General by the Association of Inspectors General, or its successor organization, while in office.

5. The Inspector General:

(a) Is in the unclassified service of the State.

(b) Shall devote his or her entire time and attention to the business of his or her office and shall not engage in any other gainful employment or occupation.

(c) Is ineligible for elective public office under the government and laws of this State, other than federal office, for 4 years after the date he or she leaves office.

Sec. 8. The Inspector General is responsible for the administration of the provisions of this chapter and all other provisions of law relating to the functions of the Office.

Sec. 9. 1. The Inspector General may, within the limits of available money, employ such persons as he or she deems necessary to provide an appropriate staff for the Office, including, without limitation, auditors, administrative staff, investigators and sworn peace officers. The Inspector General may employ category II peace officers. Any such persons employed pursuant to this subsection are in the classified service of the State.

2. The Inspector General may obtain the services of certified public accountants, qualified management consultants or other professional experts necessary to independently perform the functions of the Office, within the limits of money available for that purpose.

Sec. 10. 1. The Inspector General shall:

(a) Establish and maintain a full-time program of auditing, investigation, inspection and performance review designed to provide increased accountability and oversight of each state agency and local government and to assist in improving the

1 operations of state agencies and local governments and deterring
2 and identifying fraud, waste, abuse and corruption; and

3 (b) Upon request of the Governor, but not less often than 4 quarterly, submit a report to the Governor and to the Director of
5 the Legislative Counsel Bureau for distribution to the Legislature
6 setting forth any findings and conclusions relating to an audit,
7 investigation, inspection or review specified in subsection 2 and
8 any suggested corrective or remedial actions, including, without 9 limitation, increased oversight, carrying out or modifying any 10 controls for internal management, termination of employment or
11 referral to the Commission on Ethics or the Attorney General
12 when appropriate.

13 2. The Inspector General may:

14 (a) Engage in prevention activities, including, without
15 limitation, the review of legislation, rules, regulations, policies,
16 procedures, transactions, training and education relating to any
17 state agency or local government.

18 (b) Review the reliability and validity of the information
19 provided through the performance measures and standards of any
20 state agency or local government.

21 (c) Conduct a review of the performance measurement system
22 of any state agency or local government.

23 (d) Attend any meeting held by any state agency or local 24 government other than a meeting closed pursuant to a specific
25 statute authorizing the meeting to be closed.

26 (e) Audit the economy, efficiency and effectiveness of the 27 operations and functions of any state agency or local government.

28 (f) Audit, inspect, investigate and review the activities, records,
29 procurements, grants, agreements and other financial
30 arrangements undertaken by any state agency, local government,
31 contractor, grantee or other recipient of money, property or 32 services to be spent or used on behalf of the State or a political 33 subdivision, but not including a natural person who is receiving:

34 (1) Compensation for employment; or

35 (2) An income subsidy with no restriction on his or her use
36 of the money or property.

37 (g) Recommend remedial actions to be taken by any state
38 agency or local government to overcome or correct operating or 39 maintenance deficiencies or inefficiencies identified by the Office.

40 (h) Establish a program for receiving, reviewing and
41 investigating any complaint submitted to the Inspector General
42 concerning any fraud, waste, abuse or corruption within any state
43 agency or local government, including, without limitation, 44 deficiencies in the operation and maintenance of facilities, and referral of those complaints to the appropriate state agency or local government.

(i) Conduct civil, criminal and administrative investigations.

(j) Conduct joint investigations and projects with other oversight or law enforcement agencies.

(k) Provide information and evidence relating to alleged criminal acts to appropriate law enforcement officials.

(l) Refer matters for further civil, criminal and administrative action to appropriate administrative and prosecutorial agencies.

(m) Identify any other state agency or local government that is responsible for auditing, investigating, inspecting or reviewing the operation and management of a state agency or local government, including, without limitation, the Inspector General of the Department of Corrections, and coordinate with those state agencies and local governments to share information and avoid any duplication of activities.

(n) Issue public reports.

(o) Adopt regulations to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

(p) Perform any other task relating to his or her duties as he or she determines is necessary.

Sec. 11. 1. The Inspector General shall:

(a) Establish a telephone number at which a person may confidentially report to the Office information relating to fraud, waste or abuse with respect to public money received and used by a state agency, local government or contractor; and

(b) Create a written notice that:

(1) Clearly identifies the telephone number established pursuant to paragraph (a); and

(2) Contains a statement directing any person with any information relating to fraud, waste or abuse with respect to public money received and used by a state agency, local government or contractor to report the information at the telephone number established pursuant to paragraph (a).

2. The written notice created pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 1 must be posted conspicuously:

(a) In each public building of an agency; and

(b) On the Internet website maintained by the Office.

3. Upon receipt of information from a person calling the telephone number established pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 1, the Office shall perform a review and prepare a report of its findings. The report is a public record and:

(a) Must include, without limitation, an explanation of:

(1) The purpose of the review; and

(2) Any resolution or corrective action taken by the Office that resulted from the review.

(b) Must not include the identity of the person who reported the information.

4. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 3 and 5, any information reported to the Office at the telephone number established pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 1, including, without limitation, the identity of the person who reported the information, is confidential.

5. The Office shall not disclose information that is confidential pursuant to subsection 4 except:

(a) Pursuant to NRS 239.0115;

(b) For the purpose of carrying out any duty of the Office or for the purpose of assisting the Director of the Office of Finance or Administrator of the Division of Internal Audits of the Office of Finance in carrying out any duty of the Director or Administrator;

(c) Upon the lawful order of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(d) To the Office of the Attorney General or the office of a district attorney within this State for the purpose of investigating the alleged fraud, waste or abuse reported to the Nevada Office of the Inspector General.

6. As used in this section:

(a) "Contractor" means any person, business, organization or nonprofit corporation that contracts with a state agency or local government to receive public money. The term includes a subcontractor or a third party who receives any portion of the public money from the contractor to carry out any obligation pursuant to a contract between the contractor and the state agency or local government.

(b) "Public money" means any money deposited with a depository by the State Treasurer and includes money which is received by a state agency or local government from the Federal Government for distribution and use in this State pursuant to a federal law or federal regulation.

Sec. 12. 1. Upon request of the Inspector General, each state agency and local government and any employee of a state agency or local government shall cooperate with and provide assistance to the Inspector General in carrying out the provisions of this chapter and shall ensure that the premises, equipment, employees, books, papers, contracts, correspondence and other records of the state agency or local government are available for use by the Inspector General in carrying out those provisions.

2. A person who willfully prevents, impairs or prohibits the Inspector General from initiating, carrying out or completing any audit, investigation, inspection or review is guilty of a category E felony and shall be punished as provided in NRS 193.130.

Sec. 13. 1. In carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the Inspector General may subpoena the attendance of witnesses or the production of books, papers and documents, notwithstanding any claim of privilege.

2. If any person refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the Inspector General, the Inspector General may present a petition to the district court of the county in which the person resides, setting forth the facts, and thereupon the court, in a proper case, shall issue its subpoena to the person requiring his or her attendance before the court to testify or to produce books, papers and documents.

3. Any person failing or refusing to obey the subpoena of a district court may be proceeded against in the same manner as for a refusal to obey any other order of the court.

Sec. 14. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, the Inspector General shall make public all reports of audits, investigations, inspections and reviews conducted by the Office after such audits, investigations, inspections or reviews are concluded.

2. A report made public pursuant to subsection 1 must not include:

(a) The personal identifying information of an original source without his or her written consent; or

(b) Any information deemed privileged or confidential by law.

3. As used in this section:

(a) "Original source" means a person:

(1) Who voluntarily discloses to the State or a local government the information on which the allegations or transactions for an audit, investigation, inspection or review are based before the public disclosure of the information; or

(2) Who has knowledge of information that is independent of and materially adds to any allegations or transactions which are publicly disclosed and who voluntarily provides such information to the State or a local government.

(b) "Personal identifying information" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 205.4617.

Sec. 15. 1. Audits, investigations, inspections and reviews conducted by the Office must conform to professional standards such as those promulgated by the Association of Inspectors General or its successor organization.

2. The Legislative Auditor shall, on or before July 1, 2024, and at least once every 3 years thereafter, prepare and make public a report reviewing a representative sample of the audits, investigations, inspections and reviews issued by the Office for that time period for conformance with the professional standards pursuant to subsection 1.

Sec. 16. 1. The Nevada Inspector General's Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury as a special revenue fund to be administered by the Office. All money received by the Office must be deposited in the Fund. The money in the Fund does not revert to the State General Fund at the end of any fiscal year, and the balance in the Fund must be carried forward to the next fiscal year.

2. The interest and income earned on the money in the Fund, after deducting any applicable charges, must be credited to the Fund. All claims against the Fund must be paid as other claims against the State are paid.

3. The money in the Fund may be used only to pay the costs of carrying out programs or laws administered by the Office.

Sec. 17. A person who willfully discharges, demotes, suspends, threatens, harasses or discriminates against an employee, contractor or agent as a result of a lawful complaint of the employee, contractor or agent concerning any fraud, waste, abuse or corruption within any state agency or local government is guilty of a category E felony and shall be punished as provided in NRS 193.130.

Any such copies, abstracts or memoranda may be used to supply the general public with copies, abstracts or memoranda of the records or may be used in any other way to the advantage of the governmental entity or of the general public. This section does not supersede or in any manner affect the federal laws governing copyrights or enlarge, diminish or affect in any other manner the rights of a person in any written book or record which is copyrighted pursuant to federal law.

2. A governmental entity may not reject a book or record which is copyrighted solely because it is copyrighted.

3. A governmental entity that has legal custody or control of a public book or record shall not deny a request made pursuant to subsection 1 to inspect or copy or receive a copy of a public book or record on the basis that the requested public book or record contains information that is confidential if the governmental entity can redact, delete, conceal or separate the confidential information from the information included in the public book or record that is not otherwise confidential.

4. A person may request a copy of a public record in any medium in which the public record is readily available. An officer, employee or agent of a governmental entity who has legal custody or control of a public record:

(a) Shall not refuse to provide a copy of that public record in a readily available medium because the officer, employee or agent has already prepared or would prefer to provide the copy in a different medium.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in NRS 239.030, shall, upon request, prepare the copy of the public record and shall not require the person who has requested the copy to prepare the copy himself or herself.

TEXT OF REPEALED SECTION

353A.049 Reports of abuse, fraud or waste regarding public money received and used by agency or contractor: Establishment of telephone number by Director; notice; action by Division; confidentiality; disclosure.

1. The Director shall:

(a) Establish a telephone number at which a person may confidentially report to the Division information relating to abuse, fraud or waste with respect to public money received and used by an agency or contractor; and

(b) Create a written notice that:

(1) Clearly identifies the telephone number established pursuant to paragraph (a); and

(2) Contains a statement directing any person with any information relating to abuse, fraud or waste with respect to public money received and used by an agency or contractor to report the information at the telephone number established pursuant to paragraph (a).

2. The written notice created pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 1 must be posted conspicuously:

(a) In each public building of an agency; and

(b) On the Internet website maintained by the Office of Finance.

3. Upon receipt of information from a person calling the telephone number established pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 1, the Division shall perform a review and prepare a report of its findings. The report is a public record and:

(a) Must include, without limitation, an explanation of:

(1) The purpose of the review; and

(2) Any resolution or corrective action taken by the Division that resulted from the review.

(b) Must not include the identity of the person who reported the information.

4. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 3 and 5, any information reported to the Division at the telephone number established pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 1, including, without limitation, the identity of the person who reported the information, is confidential.

5. The Division shall not disclose information that is confidential pursuant to subsection 4 except:

(a) Pursuant to NRS 239.0115;

(b) For the purpose of carrying out any duty of the Division prescribed by NRS 353A.031 to 353A.100, inclusive, or for the purpose of assisting the Director or Administrator in carrying out any duty of the Director or Administrator prescribed by this chapter;

(c) Upon the lawful order of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(d) To the Office of the Attorney General or the office of a district attorney within this State for the purpose of investigating the alleged abuse, fraud or waste reported to the Division.

6. As used in this section:

(a) "Contractor" means any person, business, organization or nonprofit corporation that contracts with an agency to receive public money. The term includes a subcontractor or a third party who receives any portion of the public money from the contractor to carry out any obligation pursuant to a contract between the contractor and the agency.

(b) "Public money" means any money deposited with a depository by the State Treasurer and includes money which is received by an agency from the Federal Government for distribution and use in this State pursuant to a federal law or federal regulation.
