AN ACT relating to persons with addictive disorders; establishing the preferred manner of referring to such persons in Nevada Revised Statutes and the Nevada Administrative Code; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 This bill establishes the preferred manner of referring to persons affected by
2 addictive disorders and other terms related to such persons in the Nevada Revised
3 Statutes and the Nevada Administrative Code. The bill requires the Legislative 4 Counsel, to the extent practicable, to ensure that persons affected by addictive
5 disorders are referred to in Nevada Revised Statutes using language that is 6 commonly viewed as respectful and sentence structure that refers to the person
7 before referring to his or her disorder, and provides that it is the policy of this State
8 that such persons are referred to in a similar manner in the Nevada Administrative 9 Code.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. NRS 220.125 is hereby amended to read as follows:
2 220.125 1. The Legislative Counsel shall, to the extent
3 practicable, ensure that persons with physical, mental or cognitive 4 disabilities are referred to in Nevada Revised Statutes using

* A B 3 6 7 *

language that is commonly viewed as respectful and sentence structure that refers to the person before referring to his or her disability ~~§~~ as follows:

~~§2-1~~ (a) Words and terms that are preferred for use in Nevada Revised Statutes include, without limitation, “persons with disabilities,” “persons with mental illness,” “persons with developmental disabilities,” “persons with intellectual disabilities” and other words and terms that are structured in a similar manner.

~~§3-1~~ (b) Words and terms that are not preferred for use in Nevada Revised Statutes include, without limitation, “disabled,” “handicapped,” “mentally disabled,” “mentally ill,” “mentally retarded” and other words and terms that tend to equate the disability with the person.

2. The Legislative Counsel shall, to the extent practicable, ensure that terms related to persons affected by addictive disorders are referred to in Nevada Revised Statutes using language that is commonly viewed as respectful and sentence structure that refers to the person before referring to his or her disorder as follows:

(a) Words and terms that are preferred for use in Nevada Revised Statutes include, without limitation, “addictive disorder,” “persons with addictive disorders,” “person with an addictive disorder,” “person with an addictive disorder related to gambling” and “substance use disorder.”

(b) Words and terms that are not preferred for use in Nevada Revised Statutes include, without limitation, “addict,” “alcoholic,” “alcohol abuse,” “alcohol abuser,” “alcohol and drug abuser,” “drug abuse,” “drug addict,” “problem gambler,” “substance abuse” and “substance abuser.”

Sec. 2. NRS 233B.062 is hereby amended to read as follows:

233B.062 1. It is the policy of this State that every regulation of an agency be made easily accessible to the public and expressed in clear and concise language. To assist in carrying out this policy:

(a) The Attorney General must develop guidelines for drafting regulations; and

(b) Every permanent regulation must be incorporated, excluding any forms used by the agency, any publication adopted by reference, the title, any signature and other formal parts, in the Nevada Administrative Code, and every emergency or temporary regulation must be distributed in the same manner as the Nevada Administrative Code.

2. It is the policy of this State that ~~§persons~~:

(a) Persons with physical, mental or cognitive disabilities are to be referred to in the Nevada Administrative Code using language that is commonly viewed as respectful and sentence structure that

1 refers to the person before referring to the person's disability H; 2 and

3 (b) Terms related to persons affected by addictive disorders are 4 referred to in Nevada Revised Statutes using language that is
5 commonly viewed as respectful and sentence structure that refers
6 to the person before referring to his or her disorder,

7 ➡ in the same manner as provided in NRS 220.125 for Nevada
8 Revised Statutes.

9 3. The Legislative Counsel shall:

10 (a) Include each permanent regulation in the Nevada
11 Administrative Code; and

12 (b) Distribute in the same manner as the Nevada Administrative 13 Code each emergency or temporary regulation,

14 ➡ that is required to be adopted pursuant to the provisions of this 15 chapter and which is adopted by an entity other than an agency.

16 4. The Legislative Commission may authorize inclusion in the 17 Nevada Administrative Code of the regulations of an agency
18 otherwise exempted from the requirements of this chapter.

19 Sec. 3. The Legislative Counsel shall:

20 1. In preparing the reprint and supplements to Nevada Revised 21 Statutes in 2019, appropriately change any words and terms in 22 Nevada Revised Statutes in the manner that the Legislative Counsel
23 determines necessary to conform those words and terms to the 24 provisions of NRS 220.125, as amended by section 1 of this act.

25 2. In preparing supplements to the Nevada Administrative 26 Code, appropriately change any words and terms in the Nevada
27 Administrative Code in the manner that the Legislative Counsel
28 determines necessary to conform those words and terms to the
29 provisions of subsection 2 of NRS 233B.062, as amended by section
30 2 of this act.

31 Sec. 4. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2019.
