Legislative Counsel's Digest:

- 1 Existing law creates the Board of Psychological Examiners and provides that
2 the Board consists of six members who are appointed by the Governor. (NRS
3 641.030) Existing law provides the specific qualifications that the members of the 4 Board must satisfy. (NRS 641.040) Section 1 of this bill provides that the Board
5 consists of seven members. Section 1.3 of this bill requires the additional member to be a licensed psychologist who: (1) has at least 5 years of experience; and (2) is a core faculty member at certain doctorate-level programs or internship locations. Section 1.3 further provides that if such a licensed psychologist is not available, then the additional member must be a licensed psychologist with at least 5 years of experience in the practice of psychology.

Existing law requires the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board of Psychological Examiners to make and keep, on behalf of the Board, a register of licenses to practice psychology and a register of all holders of such licenses. (NRS 641.090) Existing law authorizes the Board to enter into an agreement with the Department of Health and Human Services or a division thereof for certain types of administrative assistance, including assistance in processing applications for the issuance or renewal of licenses to practice psychology. (NRS 641.1105) Existing law requires the Board to submit to the Legislative Committee on Health Care a report which includes the number of applications for the issuance or renewal of a license to practice psychology. (NRS 641.145) Sections 1.7-3 of this bill provide that these provisions also apply to persons who are registered as psychological assistants, psychological interns or psychological trainees.

Existing law provides the grounds for the Board to commence disciplinary actions against a person who is licensed to practice psychology. Existing law further establishes the procedure used by the Board for pursuing disciplining actions against a person who is licensed to practice psychology. (NRS 641.230-641.320) Existing law sets forth the appeals process that a person may pursue if the person is aggrieved by: (1) the Board's denial of an application of a license to practice psychology; or (2) the issuance of an order by the Board that imposes disciplinary action against the person. (NRS 641.325) Existing law further provides the types of actions that are prohibited. Existing law provides that a person who commits such a prohibited act is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. (NRS 641.440) Sections 5-9 and 11-23 of this bill provide that these provisions also apply to persons who are registered as psychological assistants, psychological interns or psychological trainees.

Existing law provides the requirements that a person must satisfy to be issued a license by endorsement to practice as a psychologist by the Board. (NRS 641.195) Section 3.5 of this bill imposes additional requirements that an applicant for a license by endorsement to practice as a psychologist must satisfy.

Existing law provides that the application for initial registration as a psychological assistant, psychological intern or psychological trainee is not considered complete and received until the Board receives a complete set of fingerprints or verification that the fingerprints of the applicant have been forwarded to the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History. (NRS 641.226) Section 4 of this bill provides that the application for initial registration as a psychological assistant, psychological intern or psychological trainee is not considered complete and received until the Board also receives the fee for the initial registration of a psychological assistant, psychological intern or psychological trainee prescribed by the Board.

Existing law requires the Board to charge and collect certain fees for certain examinations, issuances of licenses and other purposes. (NRS 641.228) Section 4.5 of this bill establishes a fee for the issuance of an initial expedited license by endorsement to practice as a psychologist. Section 4.5 further requires the Board to charge and collect the fee for certain licenses by endorsement and to also charge and collect the biennial fee for the renewal of a license, which must be prorated. Section 4.5 additionally increases the fee amounts for the biennial renewal of a license of a psychologist and the fee amounts relating to the restoration of a license.

Existing law sets forth the requirements for service of process pursuant to Chapter 641 of NRS. (NRS 641.243) Section 7 of this bill provides that service of process must be made by: (1) personal delivery of a copy of the process upon the person; or (2) sending a copy of the process by certified mail to the person at his or her last known address. Section 7 additionally provides when service of process is deemed to be complete.

Existing law provides the process through which a person may file a complaint against a person who practices psychology. (NRS 641.250) When a complaint is filed with the Board, existing law requires the Board to review the complaint. If it appears that the complaint is not frivolous, the Board may: (1) retain the Attorney General to investigate the complaint; and (2) if the Board retains the Attorney General, transmit the original complaint and supporting documents to the Attorney General. (NRS 641.270) Section 10 of this bill requires, when a complaint is filed with the Board, the Board or an investigator designated by the Board to review the complaint. Section 10 also requires the Board, through the President of the Board and the investigator designated by the Board, to investigate the complaint if the Board or the investigator designated by the Board determines that the complaint is not frivolous.

Existing law requires the Board to conduct an investigation of each complaint which sets forth reason to believe that a person represented or practiced as a psychologist without a license. If, after conducting such an investigation, the Board determines that such representation or practice has occurred, the Board shall provide a written summary of the Board's determination and supporting documents to the Attorney General. (NRS 641.2705) Section 11 of this bill removes this requirement to provide a written summary to the Attorney General and instead requires the Board to forward to the appropriate law enforcement agency any substantiated information regarding a person who practices or offers to practice as a psychologist or psychological assistant, psychological intern or psychological trainee without a license or registration, unless the Board determines extenuating circumstances exist.

Existing law provides the process through which the Attorney General is to conduct an investigation of a complaint that the Board has transmitted to the Attorney General. (NRS 641.271) Section 24 of this bill repeals this provision.

Existing law provides that, in a disciplinary proceeding before the Board, a panel of its members or a hearing officer, a certified copy of the record of a licensing agency showing a conviction or the suspension or revocation of a license to practice psychology is conclusive evidence of its occurrence. (NRS 641.285) In addition to such certified copies of the record, section 15 of this bill provides that, in such a disciplinary proceeding, an order containing any other disciplinary action entered by a court in the District of Columbia or any state or territory of the United States is also conclusive evidence of its occurrence.
