

Senate Bill No. 117—Senators Ratti and D. Harris

Joint Sponsor: Assemblywoman Krasner

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to real property; authorizing certain persons to record a declaration relating to real property under certain circumstances; revising certain provisions concerning restrictions and prohibitions relating to real property; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides that any provision in a written instrument which purports to forbid or restrict a conveyance, encumbrance, leasing or mortgaging of real property to any person on the basis of race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression is voidable by the grantee or the grantee's successors and assigns and that such a restriction or prohibition may be voided by such a person by filing an affidavit with the county recorder declaring the restriction or prohibition void. Existing law also provides that any restriction or prohibition by way of covenant, condition upon use or occupation, or transfer of title to real property, which restricts or prohibits the use or occupation of real property based on the acquirer's, user's or occupier's race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression is voidable and that such a restriction or prohibition may be voided by the grantee or grantee's successors and assigns by filing an affidavit with the county recorder declaring the restriction or prohibition void. (NRS 111.237)

Section 1.5 of this bill provides that any restriction or prohibition based on race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression is void, instead of voidable, eliminating the requirement to file an affidavit with the county recorder to void such a provision. Section 1.5 also adds disability, familial status and sex to the list of restrictions and prohibitions which are void.

Section 1.5 authorizes an owner or owners of real property that is subject to a restriction or prohibition that is void and unenforceable by operation of law to record a declaration of removal of discriminatory restriction that acts to remove such a provision from the original recorded instrument. Section 1.5 requires: (1) the owner or owners to file the declaration with the county recorder of the county in which the real property is located; and (2) the county recorder to record and index the declaration under certain circumstances. Section 1 of this bill requires the Real Estate Division of the Department of Business and Industry to create the declaration form. Section 1 also requires the declaration form to contain certain information.

Existing law prohibits a county recorder from recording certain documents related to real property unless the document being recorded contains certain information. (NRS 111.312) Section 2 of this bill additionally prohibits the county recorder from recording a declaration of removal of discriminatory restriction unless the declaration contains the required information.
