Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires employers in private employment to pay employees certain minimum compensation and to provide certain benefits, including overtime compensation and meal and rest breaks. (NRS 608.018, 608.019, 608.250) Section 1 of this bill requires such an employer who has 50 or more employees in this State, at a minimum, to provide employees 40 hours per year of paid leave that may be used by an employee beginning on the 90th calendar day of employment. Section 1 provides that an employee may use paid leave available for use by that employee without providing a reason to his or her employer for such use. Section 1 requires an employee to, as soon as practicable, give notice to his or her employer to use the paid leave available for use by that employee.

Section 1 also provides that an employer may: (1) limit the use of the paid leave to 40 hours per year; (2) limit the amount of paid leave that an employee may carry over to another year to a maximum of 40 hours per year; and (3) set a minimum increment that an employee may use the accrued sick leave at any one time, not to exceed 4 hours. Section 1 additionally requires an employer to maintain records of the receipt or accrual and use of paid leave for each employee for a 1-year period and to make those records available for inspection by the Labor Commissioner. Section 1 requires the Labor Commissioner to prepare a bulletin

19 setting forth these benefits and requires employers to post the bulletin in the 20 workplace. Section 1 provides an exception for: (1) employers who provide at least 21 an equivalent amount of paid leave or paid time off that may be used for the same 22 purposes and under the same conditions as required by section 1; and (2) temporary 23 and seasonal employees. Section 1 additionally provides that for the first 2 years of 24 operation, an employer defined in section 1 is not required to comply with the 25 requirements of section 1.

26 Existing law requires: (1) the Labor Commissioner or his or her representative 27 to enforce the provisions governing the payment and collection of wages and other 28 benefits; and (2) certain entities to prosecute an action for enforcement upon 29 receiving notice from the Labor Commissioner or his or her representative. (NRS 30 608.180) Section 2 of this bill requires the Labor Commissioner to enforce the 31 provisions of section 1.

32 Existing law provides that any person who violates the provisions governing 33 the payment and collection of wages and other benefits is guilty of a misdemeanor.
34 Existing law additionally authorizes the Labor Commissioner to impose against the 35 person an administrative penalty of not more than $5,000 for each such violation.
36 (NRS 608.195) Section 3 of this bill makes a violation of the provisions of section
37 1 a misdemeanor and authorizes the Commissioner to impose, in addition to any 38 other remedy or penalty, an administrative penalty of not more than $5,000 for each 39 violation.
