

Senate Bill No. 376–Senators Woodhouse and Denis

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to education; revising provisions relating to the Nevada Institute on Teaching and Educator Preparation; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law authorizes a college or university within the Nevada System of Higher Education to apply to the State Board of Education for a grant of money to establish the Nevada Institute on Teaching and Educator Preparation and establishes certain requirements for the Institute. (NRS 396.5185) This bill requires the Institute to: (1) give priority to students from inside this State when recruiting students to participate in the Institute’s program for the education and training of teachers; (2) identify opportunities to place students who complete the program in public schools throughout this State; (3) identify a target number of students to recruit for the program each year; and (4) establish requirements for persons who complete the program to engage in mentoring of students selected for the program. This bill also authorizes the Institute to accept gifts, donations, bequests, grants or other sources of money, property or services to support the Institute and to support students who are part of the program established by the Institute by allocating money to the student or reimbursing the student for certain costs.
