Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law authorizes Legislators and the chairs of each standing committee to request the drafting of a certain number of legislative measures by certain deadlines. (NRS 218D.150, 218D.155, 218D.160) Section 1 of this bill provides that if a vacancy occurs in the office of a Legislator after the general election and before the regular session of the Legislature is convened, the caucus leader of the house and party of which the Legislator was a member is authorized to allocate all, some or none of the requests for the drafting of legislative measures requested or available to be requested by the Legislator. Section 1 also establishes a deadline for the submission of these requests and the details for the drafting of the request to the Legislative Counsel. Finally, section 1 provides that a request for the drafting of a legislative measure: (1) that is allocated to a member of the Senate or Assembly is in addition to the number of requests authorized for that member by statute, joint rule or rule of either House; and (2) that is allocated to a standing committee of either House must be approved by a majority of all of the members appointed to the committee before the request is submitted to the Legislative Counsel.

Existing law prohibits a member of the Legislature, the Lieutenant Governor, the Lieutenant Governor-Elect, the Governor or the Governor-Elect from soliciting or accepting a monetary contribution, or a commitment for such a contribution, for any political purpose during a period that begins a certain number of days before the beginning of a regular or special session of the Legislature and ends a certain number of days after the final adjournment of such a session. (NRS 294A.300) Sections 2 and 7 of this bill: (1) authorizes a Legislator who was appointed to fill a vacancy in the office of a Legislator during this period to solicit or accept a monetary contribution during this period from another Legislator or from an organization whose primary purpose is to provide support for Legislators of a particular political party and house; (2) prohibits such a Legislator from soliciting or accept such monetary contributions in a total amount which exceeds $10,000 for a regular session and $1,200 for a special session; (3) limits the expenses for which the Legislator is authorized to use such contributions to those travel and housing expenses for which the Legislator receives an allowance under existing law; and (4) requires the Legislator to return or donate for certain purposes any contributions that remain unspent for an authorized purpose after a certain period. Section 5 of this bill authorizes a Legislator to use unspent campaign contributions to make contributions to another Legislator pursuant to section 2. Sections 3, 6, 8 and 9 of this bill make conforming changes to make unspent contributions received pursuant to section 2 subject to the same reporting requirement as other unspent contributions.
