Legislative Counsel's Digest:

- 1 Existing law defines activities that constitute deceptive trade practices and
- 2 provides for the imposition of civil and criminal penalties against persons who
- 3 engage in deceptive trade practices. (Chapter 598 of NRS) Sections 1, 3, 4, 7, 19
- 4 and 20 of this bill establish certain additional activities as deceptive trade practices.

Existing law makes it a misdemeanor to use a device for automatic dialing and announcing to disseminate a prerecorded message in a telephone call under certain circumstances. (NRS 597.814, 597.818) Section 1 of this bill increases the punishment for such action to a category C felony and provides for a maximum civil penalty of $10,000. Additionally, section 1 provides that such action constitutes a deceptive trade practice.

Section 3 of this bill makes it a deceptive trade practice to sell, rent or offer to sell or rent certain goods and services during a state of emergency or declaration of disaster for a price that is grossly in excess of the usual price for that good or service. Section 3 sets forth certain criteria for determining whether a price for a good or service is grossly in excess of its usual price. Section 7 of this bill makes it a deceptive trade practice to use an "unconscionable practice" in a transaction, which is generally defined to mean any act or practice which takes advantage of a consumer to a grossly unfair degree.

The federal Pallone-Thune Robocall Abuse Criminal Enforcement and Deterrence Act requires the Federal Communications Commission to adopt certain regulations and take certain other actions to deter the use of automated and unauthenticated telephone calls. (Pub. L. No. 116-105) Section 4 of this bill makes it a deceptive trade practice to violate any provision of the Act or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

Existing law imposes certain requirements on certain entities that handle personal nonpublic information relating to the security of such information. (NRS 603A.010-603A.290) Similarly, existing law imposes certain requirements on operators of Internet websites or online services relating to the collection and sale of personal information. (NRS 603A.300-603A.360) Sections 19 and 20 of this bill make it a deceptive trade practice to violate any of these provisions of existing law.

Existing law authorizes the Director of the Department of Business and Industry to impose certain penalties upon a person who has engaged in a deceptive trade practice after a hearing that is initiated by the Commissioner of Consumer Affairs serving an order upon the person. (NRS 598.0971) Section 12 of this bill authorizes the Attorney General to also initiate such a hearing before the Director and provides additional means for serving an order upon a person.

Existing law authorizes a court, in certain actions relating to the enforcement of the provisions prohibiting deceptive trade practices, to impose an additional maximum civil penalty of $12,500 if the court finds that a person has engaged in a deceptive trade practice directed toward an elderly person or a person with a disability. (NRS 598.0973) Section 13 of this bill authorizes a court to impose such a civil penalty in certain additional actions. Section 5 of this bill similarly authorizes a court to impose an additional maximum civil penalty in certain actions if the court finds that a person has engaged in a deceptive trade practice directed toward a person who is 17 years of age or younger.

Section 17 of this bill revises the criminal penalties imposed for engaging in a deceptive trade practice. Under section 17, knowingly and willfully engaging in a deceptive trade practice is a misdemeanor, except if the offense involves a loss of property or services of at least $1,200. For those offenses, section 17 establishes a tier of penalties based on the value of the property or services which generally mirror the penalties for theft. (NRS 205.0835, 598.0999)

Existing law sets forth limitations on the time in which certain civil actions and criminal prosecutions relating to deceptive trade practices are required to be commenced. (NRS 11.190, NRS 171.085, 171.090) Sections 25, 26 and 28-30 of this bill eliminate these limitations and instead provide that there is no limitation on the time in which such a civil action or criminal prosecution is required to be commenced.

Section 31 authorizes the Consumer's Advocate of the Bureau of Consumer Protection in the Office of the Attorney General to have access to all records in the possession of any agency of this State that he or she determines are necessary to exercise his or her powers relating to consumer protection.

Sections 6, 8-11, 14-16, 21-24, 27 and 32-35 of this bill make conforming changes to indicate the proper placement of language added to the Nevada Revised Statutes by this bill.
