A.B. No. 17—Revises provisions relating to the discharge of certain persons from probation or parole. (BDR 14-334)

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 17-COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY

(ON BEHALF OF THE DIVISION OF PAROLE AND PROBATION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY)

Prefiled November 18, 2020

Referred to Committee on Judiciary

SUMMARY—Revises provisions relating to the discharge of certain persons from probation or parole. (BDR 14-334)

FISCAL NOTE: Effect on Local Government: No.

Effect on the State: No.

EXPLANATION - Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets [omitted material] is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to convicted persons; eliminating the distinction between an honorable discharge and a dishonorable discharge from probation or parole; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law authorizes a court to grant an honorable discharge or a dishonorable discharge from probation under certain circumstances. (NRS 176A.850) Section 2 of this bill eliminates the distinction between an honorable discharge and a dishonorable discharge from probation. Sections [11.5] and 3 of this bill make conforming changes by eliminating certain procedural distinctions related to a dishonorable discharge from probation.

Existing law requires the Division of Parole and Probation of the Department of Public Safety to issue an honorable discharge or a dishonorable discharge from parole under certain circumstances. (NRS 213.154) Section 4 of this bill eliminates the distinction between an honorable discharge and a dishonorable discharge from parole, and instead requires the Division to discharge a person from parole upon the expiration of his or her term of sentence. Section 5 of this bill makes a conforming change related to the elimination of the distinction between an honorable discharge and a dishonorable discharge H from parole.

Existing law requires the Division to collect and report to the Nevada Sentencing Commission certain information relating to the number of persons on probation or parole. (NRS 176.01343) Section 1 of this bill eliminates the distinction between an honorable discharge and a dishonorable discharge from probation or parole for purposes of collecting and reporting such information.

Section 6 of this bill makes the elimination of the distinction between an honorable discharge and a dishonorable discharge applicable to persons: (1) serving a term of probation or on parole on the effective date of this bill; or (2) released on probation or parole on or after the effective date of this bill.

- (1) The uniform crime rates for this State and each county in this State by index crimes and type of crime; and
- (2) The percentage changes in uniform crime rates for this State and each county in this State over time by index crimes and type of crime.
- (e) Identify gaps in this State's data tracking capabilities related to the criminal justice system and make recommendations for filling any such gaps.
- (f) Prepare and submit a report not later than the first day of the second full week of each regular session of the Legislature to the Governor, the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau for transmittal to the Legislature and the Chief Justice of the Nevada Supreme Court. The report must include recommendations for improvements, changes and budgetary adjustments and may also present additional recommendations for future legislation and policy options to enhance public safety and control corrections costs.
- (g) Employ and retain other professional staff as necessary to coordinate performance and outcome measurement and develop the report required pursuant to this section.
 - As used in this section: 2.
 - (a) "Technical violation" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 176A.510.
- (b) "Type of admission" means the manner in which a person entered into the custody of the Department of Corrections, according to the internal definitions used by the Department of Corrections.
- (c) "Type of offense" means an offense categorized by the Department of Corrections as a violent offense, sex offense, drug offense, property offense, DUI offense or other offense, consistent with the internal data systems used by the Department of Corrections.
- [Section 1.] Sec. 1.5. NRS 176A.500 is hereby amended to read as follows:
- 176A.500 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, the period of probation or suspension of sentence may be indeterminate or may be fixed by the court and may at any time be extended or terminated by the court, but the period, including any extensions thereof, must not be more than:
 - (a) Twelve months for a: (1) Gross misdemeanor; or
- (2) Suspension of sentence pursuant to NRS 176A.240, 176A.260, 176A.290 or 453.3363:
 - (b) Eighteen months for a category E felony;
 - (c) Twenty-four months for a category C or D felony;
 - (d) Thirty-six months for a category B felony; or
- (e) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (d), inclusive, 60 months for a violent or sexual offense as defined in NRS 202.876 or a violation of NRS 200.508.
- The court may extend the period of probation or suspension of sentence ordered pursuant to subsection 1 for a period of not more than 12 months if such an extension is necessary for the defendant to complete his or her participation in a specialty court program.
- 3. At any time during probation or suspension of sentence, the court may issue a warrant for violating any of the conditions of probation or suspension of sentence and cause the defendant to be arrested. Except for the purpose of giving a dishonorable discharge from probation, and except] as otherwise provided in this subsection, the time during which a warrant for violating any of the conditions of probation is in effect is not part of the period of probation. If the warrant is cancelled or probation is reinstated, the court may include any amount of that time as part of the period of probation.

- 4. Any parole and probation officer or any peace officer with power to arrest may arrest a probationer without a warrant, or may deputize any other officer with power to arrest to do so by giving the probationer a written statement setting forth that the probationer has, in the judgment of the parole and probation officer, violated the conditions of probation. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5, the parole and probation officer or the peace officer, after making an arrest, shall present to the detaining authorities, if any, a statement of the charges against the probationer. The parole and probation officer shall at once notify the court which granted probation of the arrest and detention or residential confinement of the probationer and shall submit a report in writing showing in what manner the probationer has violated the conditions of probation.
- 5. A parole and probation officer or a peace officer may immediately release from custody without any further proceedings any person the officer arrests without a warrant for violating a condition of probation if the parole and probation officer or peace officer determines that there is no probable cause to believe that the person violated the condition of probation.
- 6. A person who is sentenced to serve a period of probation for a felony or a gross misdemeanor must be allowed for the period of the probation a deduction of:
- (a) Ten days from that period for each month the person serves and is current with any fee to defray the costs of his or her supervision charged by the Division of Parole and Probation of the Department of Public Safety pursuant to NRS 213.1076 and with any payment of restitution ordered by the court, including, without limitation, any payment of restitution required pursuant to NRS 176A.430. A person shall be deemed to be current with any such fee and payment of restitution for any given month if, during that month, the person makes at least the minimum monthly payment established by the court or, if the court does not establish a minimum monthly payment, by the Division.
- (b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 8, 10 days from that period for each month the person serves and is actively involved in employment or enrolled in a program of education, rehabilitation or any other program approved by the Division.
- 7. A person must be allowed a deduction pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection 6 regardless of whether the person has satisfied the requirements of the other paragraph and must be allowed a deduction pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection 6 if the person has satisfied the requirements of both paragraphs of that subsection.
- 8. A person who is sentenced to serve a period of probation for a felony or a gross misdemeanor and who is a participant in a specialty court program must be allowed a deduction from the period of probation for being actively involved in employment or enrolled in a program of education, rehabilitation or any other program approved by the Division only if the person successfully completes the specialty court program. Such a deduction must not exceed the length of time remaining on the person's period of probation.
